PIERRE BERTON VISITS

Noted author and historian Pierre Berton casts an approving look at some of the articles displayed in the Albert Lacombe Historical Museum Saturday morning. Mr. Berton and other members of Heritage Canada were hosted Saturday by the Albert Lacombe Historical Foundation in a tour of St. Albert's historical sites.

Heritage Canada tour

Local historic sites "impressive"

"Impressive" was the reaction of the governors of Heritage Canada when they toured the old residence of Bishop Grandin in St. Albert last Saturday morning. The 13 governors and the staff of the National foundation were meeting in Edmonton and took time out of a busy schedule to visit the site of the St. Albert mission. The group was made up of representatives from across Canada and included noted author and historian, Pierre Berton.

Tour members were joined at the Macdonald Hotel by Historical Society president, Mrs. Renee Laird, who gave them a brief outline of St. Albert's history. On their arrival at the Catholic Church the governors were met by Mayor Ron Harvey, Mrs. Arlene Borgstede, chairman of the Albert Lacombe Historic Foundation and other members of the Foundation Board. Mrs. Borgstede guided the group on a tour of the Father Lacombe Museum, the crypt and Bishop Grandin's residence commencing briefly on each.

The governors of Heritage Canada, an organization concerned with the preservation and conservation of Canada's history through its old buildings and historic sites were most impressed with the log chapel, built by Father Lacombe in 1861 and preserved by the Oblates over 50 years ago by enclosing it within a brick super-structure.

Committee meetings go public

Over a year of debate has resulted in victory for Trustee Jerry Manegre who first asked that the Catholic School Board open its committee meetings to the public. Monday night Board Policy Committee Chairman Ann Smith moved that "all committee meetings of the Board shall be deemed to be open to the public, however the chairman of each committee shall decide whether the meeting or any part thereof is closed to the public."

The last part of the motion, while possibly removing the 'teeth', was designed to keep confidential matters such as negotiations with teachers, land purchasing, and personalities out of the public eye during initial stages.

The public will be able to get advance information on meeting dates whether the meeting is public by phoning the District office. It is also possible the Gazette will carry a list of meetings in the future.

The sad part of the whole thing (if one believes participation is the key to democracy) is that 99% of the meetings will remain like regular Board meetings - unattended by the public. Trustee Porter summed up this feeling "I really don't think things are going to change much from what they are right now."

Games Could it cost us half a million?

There are two BIG questions concerning the hosting of the 1979 Alberta Summer Games by the City of St. Albert.

Question number one: ... "Are we going to provide good facilities?"

Question number two ... "If we do, where is the money going to come from?"

The Province of Alberta, through the appropriate channels concerning the staging of the Games, provides a total of $200,000 for the host community. But, this money will be tied up in administrative costs, transportation, track equipment, promotional material etc.

It doesn't cover building facilities or renovating and upgrading existing ones.

The City of St. Albert has approved only one facility, and that is the track and field venue, costing $272,000. Bob Byron, city manager, has given the city council a list of other facilities that could be built, plus a list of existing facilities that could be upgraded. This list, including the already committed track money, comes to a total of $430,900.

Included in the list for new facilities is $70,000 for two tennis courts, $26,800 for a midget ball diamond, $40,000 for two slow pitch softball diamonds, a $3,000 horseshoe venue, and of course, the track.

Renovations to existing facilities would cost $3,000 for two soccer fields, $700 for two field hockey fields, $2,400 for the Mission baseball diamond, $10,000 to resurface four Mission tennis courts, and $3,000 for miscellaneous repairs. Add all this together and you get $430,900.

The St. Albert Games Board hasn't yet indicated exactly what they would like to have. They might like to have it all, or part of the list, or maybe none, although that's highly unlikely.

The city can't get any grant money from the provincial government, as a Recreation and Culture Master Plan must be made. The Plan doesn't look like it will be ready for at least two or three months. At last week's council meeting, absolutely nothing was decided upon (concerning the Games facilities budget), as council decided that Bob Sauer of Community Services should try and get the Master Plan completed. They also reiterated that the process should not be hastened because of the Alberta Games.

So that leaves the City with some problems. If Provincial grant money can't be had, and either the City or the St.

Albert Games Board decide that the existing facilities should be renovated, along with constructing needed venues, the question of "where is the money going to come from?" comes into the picture.

There are two alternatives here. One could be the recovery of the money through the taxes, with the mill rate going up just a little more than one mill. Or, the City could take out a loan for the costs.

But then, maybe the whole concept of providing good facilities would be scrapped. Totally.

This whole situation is full of question marks ... it's too bad the Recreation and Culture Master Plan isn't finished, then it would be a piece of cake putting on "the best Games yet."

Dim future for Lions fieldhouse

The lack of a Recreation and Culture Master Plan for St. Albert makes the future of the proposed "fieldhouse," to be built by the St. Albert Lions Breakfast Club, look rather bleak at the moment.

The Lions wanted to build the fieldhouse in time for use during the Alberta Summer Games. The fieldhouse would be situated next to the track, which will be located between V.J. Maloney and Sir Alexander Mackenzie schools.

The Lions Club is prepared to pay for half of the cost of the building, while getting the other half through Provincial grant money. Total cost of the fieldhouse would be in the neighbourhood of $70,000 to $80,000.

The Master Plan could very well be several months away from completion, but the Lions need to know by March at the latest, so that the green light can be given to applying for the grant money from the province's Please Turn to Page 4A

February 4th is a big day

The Canadian Association for Adult Education could be on the way to something big.

Plans are completed for an interesting way to get Canadians "Talking Back" on a subject of growing importance to them all - the future of their country. Not just random talk, but talking back after study of five pertinent topics is the goal of a CBC television series arranged by the Association. It will get underway on Sunday evening, February 4 with a three-hour marathon show originating from Victoria Composite High School and televised across Canada.

Topic of the first show is "So We're Different" and across the country kits have been made available for study groups who will meet prior to the show. The project is under the direction of Dr. Brian Staples, asked by the Association to act as chairperson. He made arrangements with Red Deer College to co-ordinate Talking Back in Alberta.

Here is how it works: individuals or groups in- Please Turn to Page 4A

Large crowd sees Squadron 533 receive Sword of Honour

What can be said of last Thursday evening's banquet except "GREAT". The event, for the presentation of the Sword of Honour, was held at the Club Mocombo. Hosted by #533 Squadron sponsors, the St. Albert Lions Club, it was a tremendous success. The organizing and hard work put in by Lions and officers, was well worth the effort. An extremely large turnout of parents, cadets and guests filled the hall to capacity. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Lion Rod Thronson, who once more did a remarkable job of keeping things going in an organized manner.

Special guests included Lt. Col. and Mrs. A. R. Donaldson, detachment commander, Capt. and Mrs. D. Fish, area cadet officer, Capt. and Mrs. E. Newstead, cadet liaison officer, and Major W. Sadowick from Air Command Winnipeg, who had arrived in Edmonton that day, was a surprise and welcome guest. Mayor and Mrs. R. Harvey, representing the City, and Mr. E. Jamison, MLA representing the Province of Alberta were also among the special guests. Air Cadet League members Mr. and Mrs. H. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. K. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shoults, as well as Mr. and Mrs. J. Yuill, provincial chairman were also in attendance. Civilian instructors of #533, many accompanied by their wives, were guests for the banquet. These instructors, who dedicate time and effort are indispensable and contribute much to the success of the cadets and the Squadron.

WO2 Fecteau said grace and the banquet opened to see approximately 300 people attend the official presentation of the Sword of Honour, by Mr. Jack Yuill, provincial chairman of the Air Cadet League of Alberta, to Major F. A. Maybee, commanding officer of #533 RC(AIR)C. He in turn presented the Sword of Honour to WO1 L. Rogers, who accepted it on behalf of the cadets. Greetings were expressed from the City of St. Albert by Mayor R. Harvey, from the Province of Alberta by Mr. E. Jamison, MLA and Department of National Defence by Lt. Col. A. R. Donaldson.

A special note of thanks must go to Banquet Chairman Mr. Dick Ryley who apprehended our guest speaker, Edmonton Eskimos, "Golden Toe," Mr. Dave Cutler. This was truly the highlight of the evening. Attention was instantaneous from cadets, guests, parents, officers, staff and all, the moment he began until he finished. From the ovation Mr. Cutler received, we are sure all would have been quite content to have him carry on another couple of hours. His talk on teamwork was interjected with humour, personal events, serious moments and basic down to earth facts. He truly reached the cadets and made his point. Champions are made from teamwork and caring about "the other guy" and Mr. Dave Cutler knows what he is talking about. Thank you does not seem like enough and yet, we at #533 do sincerely thank Dave Cutler for taking the time to speak at this most memorable banquet.

Cpl. K. Devine thanked Mr. Cutler and even though his talk was ended he was not through yet. His popularity was evident in the amount of autographs he was requested, to sign. And it wasn't just cadets! Parents and guests alike were in line waiting for his signature. At one point he actually ran out of ink and had to borrow a pen. Thank you "Dave" from #533 Air Cadet Squadron.

Certificates, superimposed with the "Sword of Honour" and bearing the names of all cadets on strength as of May 1978, as well as Lions Committee, officers and staff of #533, were presented by Major F. A. Maybee, Mr. E. Ayre, Lions president, and Mr. D. Ward, Lions committee chairman, to every cadet presently on strength with #533 Squadron.

WO1 L. Rogers closed the evening with words of appreciation to all who attended. As mentioned a great deal of time and effort was put into the organizing of this event and to name everyone individually is almost impossible. The St. Albert Lions Club did a remarkable job and #533 would like to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for hosting this banquet.

As well as having a supportive sponsoring body and dedicated civilian instructors and officers, who give so much of their time to Air Cadets, many other people are involved in the success of a squadron and acknowledgement must be given the Department of National Defence, for their co-operation and support in making so many activities available to us, the Air Cadet League, who make the scholarships possible and their assistance, the St. Albert Gazette, our local news media for their continued support and to the parents for their assistance. But most of all and most important are the cadets, without them and their enthusiasm, nothing would have been achieved. They are our citizens of tomorrow, growing stronger and more responsible every day and Air Cadets is helping make

Major Floyd Maybee, commanding officer of #533 Squadron holds the Sword of Honour up to view after accepting it from Mr. Jack Yuill, chairman of the Alberta Provincial Committee of the Air Cadet League of Canada. WO1 Lee Rogers then accepted the sword on behalf of the Cadets. The Sword presentation recognized the high achievement of the squadron which placed second in Canada for the 1977-78 year, Top in the Alberta, Top in the Prairie Region, and produced the Top senior and junior drill teams. An appreciation banquet for the squadron was held Thursday evening.

Those cadets who were unable to attend, as well as ex-cadets in the same predicament can obtain their certificate from Lt. Maybee this Thursday evening, January 25. Certificates unclaimed will be mailed out this week.

On January 21, Selection Boards for upcoming scholarships were held at the Community Hall. Approximately 15 cadets came before a committee of officers of #533, civilian instructors, Lions member and League member. This is actually a pre-selection board, as those selected from this, will in turn go on to the Penhold Selection Boards held in March. From there finalists for each scholarship will be chosen and those selected will be notified by mail. Scholarships available through Air Cadets are Overseas Exchange, Flying, (Power), Gliding, Senior Leaders, Technical Training, Bush Survival, Athletic. These scholarships and selection boards are very competitive and cadets going for the challenge are top calibre. Good luck is wished to them all.

Information on joining Air Cadets can be obtained at the Community Hall on Thursday evenings at 0700 PM.

Local man named Airman of the Year

September 6, 1976 will be a day long remembered by a pilot who attempted to land a small plane at the Edmonton Municipal Airport.

Upon takeoff, the weather had been clear and visibility good -- perfect conditions for a pilot qualified to fly by visual means only. However, with an abruptness typical of our fickle Alberta weather, a light rain began to fall and visibility diminished to eight miles. These were conditions that necessitated the use of instruments in an approach procedure. Unfortunately, the pilot in question was not trained to use such methods.

The pilot quickly became lost and disoriented. An attempted landing at the Municipal Airport was unsuccessful and the plane was diverted to Namao. For the hapless pilot, this was an instruction that probably saved his life. Once at Namao, he and his aircraft were in the able hands of then Master Corporal Ronald Armstrong of St. Albert, who was to supervise the Ground Control Approach. According to a later write-up of the incident, Armstrong "provided calm and confident instructions," succeeding in calming the agitated pilot. A first attempt at an instrument landing failed but the second met with success when the plane touched down 7,000 feet along the 14,000 foot runway. Sixteen minutes after the Namao phase of the operation began, the pilot was safely on the ground.

In the professional life of Ron Armstrong and other controllers, this incident is unexceptional, a standard workaday operation. Two weeks previous to the incident, on August 25, 1976, Armstrong handled a similar situation. The pilot, in this case a woman, found herself and her aircraft engulfed in fog, obscuring identifiable landmarks. Having little experience, and only a visual rating only, she was ill equipped to cope with the poor visibility, which was at a level considered a bare minimum for even veteran instrument pilots. Four attempts at instrument landings had failed. However, what was later described as a "superb radar approach," Armstrong "talked down" the flustered pilot -- taking only six minutes to do so.

These two incidents earned Armstrong two awards in recognition of the skill involved in averting possible loss of life. Several months later, he was presented with the Chief of Defence Staff award. Shortly after, his colleagues in the Royal Canadian Air Force Association paid tribute to the controller's unflappable talents, by naming him Airman of the Year. (Since the time of the award Master Corporal Armstrong has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant).

To the air travelling public, air traffic controllers are the forgotten men. However, without their incisive management, the skies would match the freeways in chaos and carnage. The knowledge that men like Sgt. Ron Armstrong are keeping vigil over the flight paths is vastly reassuring to both pilot and passenger alike.

AIRMAN OF THE YEAR

Although the Gazette camera caught him taking it easy at home, Ron Armstrong is anything but casual about his work. Ron is an air traffic controller with the Armed Force Base, Namao and was honoured with the Airman of the Year Award last year. This award and the Chief of Defence Staff Award were presented in recognition of Sgt. Armstrong's unshakeable skill in "talking down" pilots who became disoriented in adverse weather conditions. Ron, his wife Louise and their children all reside in St. Albert.

GRINNING GUIDE

Alida van Essen has a lot to smile about. She won a trip to Ottawa, where she will attend sessions of the House of Commons, Senate and Committee Meetings, as well as meeting and talking to members of Parliament and the Senate. Miss van Essen will leave on February 18 and return three days later.

Very interesting

Gazette staffer Vicky Knight received a suspiciously festive-looking envelope in the mail Tuesday, addressed in writing she knew to be that of her sister. The missive, as you've probably already guessed, was a Christmas card. Knowing this particular relative to be something of a martinet when it comes to personal correspondence, Vicky took a second look at the envelope to ascertain the mailing date. The letter had begun its tedious journey from Ontario on December 7. Makes one wonder at the origins of the term post-haste.

Local Guide wins trip to Ottawa

Alida van Essen, a Guide with the 3rd St. Albert Company, is one of two girls chosen from Alberta to go on a special trip to Ottawa. The other girl is a cadet from Red Deer, Alison Hitman.

Two girls were selected from every guide district in Alberta, as well as from each Cadet Squadron and Ranger Company. These names then went to a provincial selection committee who chose the two girls, who would represent Alberta.

Alida won the trip for an essay she wrote which pointed out the reasons why she wanted to go. She thought that the trip would prove to be a good experience for her, and she was genuinely interested in how a country as big as Canada was governed. Alida has never been to Ottawa and she will ride on an airplane for the first time in her life.

This is the first year that this competition has taken place, but should be an annual affair from now on.

The competition was made available from funds raised on the occasion of Mrs. Helen Gurd's retirement as Chief Commissioner of Girl Guides of Canada. The funds are to be used for a Citizenship Project which would enable two Guides, Rangers, or Cadets from each province or territory to spend some time in Ottawa attending sessions of the House of Commons, Senate and Committee meetings.

The girls will be leaving on February 18 and returning on the 22nd. They will be given an opportunity to meet and talk to members of Parliament. There will also be time for sightseeing, visiting museums and galleries, capped off with an evening at the National Arts Centre.

Alida was also a special guest at the first Citizenship Court held in St. Albert. She took a visiting aunt from Holland to the court to show how her father and grandmother had become Canadian citizens back in 1964.

Catholic schooling to be studied

Former trustee Peter Freeman has been chosen to chair the Catholic School District's Ad Hoc Committee on the Theory and Practice of Catholic Schooling.

Frank Kehoe was selected vice chairman on the committee which includes Jan Moran, John Haas, Mavis Donnelly, Al Eshpeter, Anna

Eshpeter, Klaus Dingler, M. T. Balaski, Carol McRae and Terry Pepin.

The committee will review Dr. Carney's "Theory and Practice of Catholic Schooling" (commissioned by the Catholic School Trustees Association) and make recommendations to aid the Board in policy making.

A "time of stress"

"You say that freedom of utterance is not for time of stress, and I reply with the sad truth that only in time of stress is freedom of utterance in danger. No one questions it in calm days because it is not needed. And the reverse is true also; only when free utterance is suppressed is it needed, it is most vital to justice."

William Allen White in the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette, July 27, 1922
Pulitzer Prize, 1923.

William Allen White was a man of extraordinary vision, and nowhere was his wisdom more evident than in the words quoted above. Were he a Canadian living today, White would undoubtedly feel a profound disquiet at the present state of "freedom of utterance" here. The growing trend to judicial suppression of free opinion blackly underscores one of White's "sad truths" that this is indeed a "time of stress."

A host of individual freedoms in this country have been ominously undermined in recent years. However, the focus of this editorial is more specific. It is the insidious erosion of freedom of the press which concerns us here. Any individual who thinks to remain in complacent immunity to this threat is gravely mistaken, for when the press of this country is silenced, so will be her people. The press speaks for a multitude, expressing every viewpoint in the spectrum. The editorial stance of this or any other newspaper may be an anathema to many. But those who favour its suppression are merely assisting at the stilling of their own voices. However, this ominous axiom continues to go ignored. The tide of suppression swells slowly, while Canadians bob righteously in its wake.

Press paranoia? We only wish it were. In the last two months the Canadian judiciary has dispensed a pair of decisions which render impotent two major components of Canadian editorial pages. In a Saskatchewan libel case the Supreme Court has ruled that a libellous letter to the editor is grounds for suit against the newspaper in which it appears, as well as against the author of the letter. In the past, the publisher was exempt from litigation concerning letters, as he was considered merely to be providing the space. This decision has changed this and with it the character of the nation's editorial pages. The provocative, acerbic debates which once enlivened our newspapers have been stifled by the fear of legal reprisal, and the truths that once emerged from these forums will remain obscured. Should the courts persist in such decisions, we have seen the last of the free press in this country. A defanged newspaper is just so much junk mail.

However, the courts had not yet finished. Last week an entire profession was fitted with a judicial muzzle. In a precedent shattering decision, a British Columbia Supreme Court judge ruled a Vancouver cartoonist and his paper guilty of libel for portraying the B.C. Minister of Human Resources pulling the wings from a fly. In hearing the case, the judge proclaimed his disinterest in the traditions of political caricature. Apparently, precedent is a hallowed concept in the judge's profession, while the traditions of others are dismissed as irrelevant. With one rap of the gavel, the crucial role of the political cartoon over centuries is blithely disregarded. Nor did the judge trouble himself with the subtleties of the cartoonist's art, which is by nature symbolic. Presumably, any political drawing which is not literal fact may be libellous. Thus, no more can we chortle at the myriad cartoon images of Pierre, symbolically frozen in the antic postures of political life. He and other politicians will have to rely on the dry tones of history to record their feats and foibles for posterity. In Ottawa, such cartoons are a status symbol indicating one's arrival at the political summit. Their passage will be mourned.

The gagging of the press is one small manoeuvre in a subtle guerilla war against our basic freedoms. The very liberties for which thousands of Canadians gave their lives a mere 40 years ago are being stripped away by those who should be strongest in their defence. Mail searches, tapped phones and electronic surveillance now wear the guise of legitimacy, while traditional press freedoms are branded unlawful. At this rate, Orwell's 1984 will soon be merely a nostalgic stroll down memory lane, a bitter reminder of our own naivete.

The most terrifying aspect in this assault on "freedom of utterance" has been the total lack of public outcry. Like a nation of sheep, we line up meekly to be shorn of our rights. Strident voice must be given to our protests, before that too becomes a proscribed action; and it must be done soon. Sheep can also be slaughtered.

"Major Cultural Recreational Facilities Development Plan." Under the MCRFDP, a Recreation and Culture Master Plan must be in effect before any grant money will be given out.

If, by some chance, the Master Plan is completed very soon, there could be another problem facing the Lions. There is only $325,000 left under the recreation portion of the grant money allotted for St. Albert. The City of St. Albert would be asking for that money to cover the costs of constructing and renovating venues for the Summer Games. Between the Lions and the City, they would be asking for about half a million dollars, more than the money available. This will probably never happen.

According to Lion representative John Kaminski, the way the situation looks now, the project will never get off the ground.

impressive

Tourist Information Centre to view the reconstruction of the former NWMP barracks, the group gathered at The Settlement for a luncheon hosted by the City of St. Albert. Mayor Harvey expressed a welcome on behalf of the city telling the guests that it was an honour to have them visit St. Albert.

Mr. Berton, chairman of the Board of Governors, replied, saying that he had always envisioned St. Albert as a small town with a little white church on the hill. He was surprised to find such a large city. He said it was the governors of Heritage Canada who were honoured and expressed thanks on their behalf.

Mrs. Laird then presented each of the Governors with an inscribed copy of the Society's recently published book, "St. Albert: A Pictorial History."

Members of the Albert Lacombe Historic Foundation were much encouraged by their meeting with the governors. The Foundation is currently having a structural survey done of the Bishop's residence to determine the feasibility of its preservation. The four-storey, wooden structure was constructed in 1887 and has been unused for the past three years. The building has been without heat since 1977 and has deteriorated greatly in that time.

February 4

terested in taking part will form a study group - could be a family, or a group of friends, or an organization such as a church group, from two people to 15 or more.

In the Edmonton area your group may be registered with Ollie Hage at the University of Alberta, Faculty of Extension. Telephone Ollie at 432-3035 and she will register your group and arrange to have the package kits of material sent to you. In St. Albert the information packages are available at the library next to City Hall. The study material suggests a group can think up possible solutions for the five topics. The group's ideas are then to be distilled into five-word phrases and the ideas adopted are then telephoned to Red Deer College over the three days following the television program. (Ph. 346-3376).

For example, on the February 4 topic, "So We're Different," a group might come up with two solutions. They might decide that travel was a stumbling block for Canadians getting to understand each other, the high cost of air flight was a factor; that language was a barrier; that in some places there is a lack of teachers versed in more than one language, and that exchanging teachers could help. These points could be reduced to the phrases "Low air fares" and "teacher exchange." The two phrases are phoned in and the College codes them and puts them on computer cards. Cards from distribution centres in every province are collected in Toronto, where computer work will produce a print out of the results - indicating how many people have similar solutions, the number of solutions proposed on the topic.

A graduate student at the U of A, Bill Milnthorpe, will analyze the print outs and forward a synopsis to each registered group. Thus Canadians in every Province and the two territories will be able to find out what other Canadians are thinking about the five selected topics.

A write-back arrangement has also been arranged - any group wishing to expand its ideas can write in to Red Deer College, and for this there is no deadline.

Other topics to be covered are "Let's Get It Straight", on the media and political system (March 11); "Winners or Losers," on the economy (March 25); "Canadians at Work" (April 8) and "Where Do We Go From Here" on April 22.

Through the holiday season when people got together more often with their friends they were talking about such issues. With lots of time between shows it should be easy enough to get a group together so such discussions can be put to good use for Canada.

The number to phone is 458-2060, and there's not a lot of time before February 4. Gazette articles will follow the project.

Elim Chapel is pleased to announce that commencing January 16, 1979 a Free Christian Family Counselling Service will be available for St. Albert residents.

For appointment contact Mr. Harold Peacock or George Gumas between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. on Tuesday evenings. Phone 459-5181.

All counselling sessions will be dealt with in strict confidence.

KINETTE HAMPERS 'MADE CHRISTMAS'

If there is a free space in your paper, I would ask you to please use it to thank the Kinettes for their work with the Christmas hampers. I never thought much about it before but this year I needed one. What a difference it made in my home. Their visit made Christmas for my children, but more importantly, they learned the meaning of sharing with others.

PROTECT OUR WILDERNESS

The integrity of Alberta's last great wilderness, the Willmore Wilderness Park, is threatened by recent actions of the Department of Business Development and Tourism. The Minister, Bob Dowling, has invited consultants to examine the feasibility of using tourism to stabilize the economy of Grande Cache, a coal-mining town on the northern boundary of the Willmore. Among the detailed feasibility proposals were three which would be ill for Willmore Wilderness: (1) establishment of loop roads, specifically at Ptarmigan Lake to Grande Cache; (2) establishment of Rock Lake to Grande Cache; (2) establishment of Alpine Villages, specifically at Ptarmigan Lake, including a road from Grande Cache to the lake, and (3) development of a major alpine skiing facility — all within the Willmore Wilderness!

The 1,800 square mile Willmore Wilderness, lying due north of Jasper National Park, is currently dedicated to non-motorized wildland recreation—hiking, horseback travel, fishing, hunting, cross country skiing—under its own Act. It is not only classified as "off-limits" to coal exploration or mining by our Province's Coal Policy, the Willmore is also zoned as "Prime Protection" (Zone 1) under our government's East Slopes Policy.

The tourism feasibility studies constitute the first challenge to the letter and spirit of Alberta's East Slopes Zoning Policy, hardly a year old. This challenge comes not from industry, but from a government department. It was put forward, insofar as we understand, without the knowledge of other government departments, or even the Interdepartmental Committee which is supposed to oversee proposed developments along our Eastern Slopes.

Willmore Wilderness Park was twice before reduced in size for coal. Now, at least one government department wants to desecrate the remainder because they can't sell the stuff. Albertans who know and love the Willmore for its rugged beauty and wilderness challenge must write to Premier Lougheed protesting this "thin edge of the wedge" toward its eventual dismembering.

Bob Marshall, a wilderness advocate and U.S. Forest Service official, noted some 45 years ago that "wilderness is disappearing as fast as snow melting on the mountainsides in the spring." Spring, and the results of Business and Tourism's studies are not far away. Alberta's Willmore Wilderness Park is in real danger of disappearing; it needs every citizen's help in this time of crisis. Albertans who wish more information on the Willmore and the

DIVORCE LAWS CREATE TAX BURDEN

It is with interest that I note the changes in the Canadian Divorce Laws with regard to the splitting of assets. These changes may be of benefit to those women whose husbands are self-employed or in a high salary bracket, but for the average family with a mortgaged home and not much else, it would seem the changes are in favour of the husband.

For example, the mortgaged home is sold and after paying off the mortgage, the remaining money is split. The wife, who is more than likely raising the children, is given the challenge of financing another home for herself and her children, probably at much higher payments then required for the original home, buying house insurance and paying ever increasing utility rates. The husband has a nice little nest egg for one person to invest as he wishes.

One bit of information that seems to escape many wives left to raise children is the fact that she must, at the end of April each year, pay tax on the maintenance and alimony she is paid by her ex-husband. If she has chosen to stay at home and struggle along on his payments, tax wise she won't be too bad off. If however, she chooses to try and make a new life for herself, and maintain the same standard of living her children had before the divorce, by going out to work to supplement her maintenance payments, then the hammer will fall at tax time.

If for example, with four children under the age of sixteen, she receives monthly payments of $150.00 per child for a total of $600, then the father is eligible to reduce his income for each year by $7200. If he were part of the family scene, he would likely be eligible for an exemption for these children of $1840. Not bad!

The mother in turn adds this $7200 to her income, as well as the family allowance payments, and pays tax on it. In this case, that could be as much as $1300. This means that out of every $600 she receives, she had better stash away $100 off the top for tax purposes.

Arthur Drache, an Ottawa lawyer who writes for the Financial Post, suggested in his article on the subject on January 6, that "it would not be illogical for sums paid for support to be treated as the income of the supported child. As children can receive more than $1600 of income a year before the dependency deduction starts to be eroded, the effect of adding the support payments to the child's income would be to render most of the payments tax free. While this would not give tax relief to all single-parent families, it would provide some relief for many of the needier ones."

Mr. Drache goes on to suggest that this could be a worthwhile project, before the next budget is brought down, for groups such as Parents without Partners to lobby for. I feel that it is just and fair for a wife to pay tax on alimony paid to her, for herself, but it seems unfair she should be taxed on maintenance payments for the children. I am sure that the feelings of many men in this situation would be "it all depends which side of the fence you are sitting on," but in all fairness it would seem that they should at least look at sharing the tax burden for the raising of the children.

MONARCHISTS ALARMED

The New Year will see the introduction of a new Constitutional Amendment Bill, prepared by the federal government on the basis of comments made about Bill C-60, its original purpose to replace the B.N.A. Acts. It is important for citizens to maintain their vigilance over changes relating to our Monarchical form of government.

This summer, the then Minister of State for Federal-Provincial Relations, Marc Lalonde, tried to defend the republican provisions of Bill C-60 by stating that they merely reflected 'current practice' concerning the roles of the Queen and the Governor General. Most Canadians, and all the provincial premiers, were not fooled by his distortion of the facts.

However, undoubtedly the argument of 'current practice' will come up over and over again during future debate. So, let it first be remembered that in many cases, 'current practice' is nothing more than the practice of the Trudeau Ministry. As such, it lies clearly within the political realm, and is subject to change — unless frozen in a written constitution!

To demonstrate in dramatic fashion the above point, a list has been prepared detailing the many changes which have weakened the Canadian Monarchy during the latter part of the Queen's reign. They range from symbolic (1969 — abolition of 21 gun salutes on the Sovereign's Birthday) to substantive (1977 — removal of the Queen's right to sign Canadian Ambassadors' credentials).

Canadians who care about retaining the Monarchy, and who would like a copy of the complete list of erosions to bring to the attention of their friends and elected representatives, may obtain the article by writing the Monarchist League of Canada, 2 Wedgewood Crescent, Ottawa, Ontario K1B 4B4.

Board against annexation

Trustees of the Catholic School District are not interested in Edmonton's plans to bring St. Albert into her fold.

The subject arose when Ken Porter asked other trustees whether the District should go on record as being against annexation. Trustee Lavoy agreed that the District should go on record as supporting one position or the other but Trustee Jerry Manegre felt this action might be a little premature before the Board had more information to react to. He suggested that the Board familiarize itself with LAB proceedings first and later moved that the Administration be directed to find out what options the School Board had to react to Edmonton's Horizon 21 proposal.

Trustee Manegre also asked that the administration explore the options in relation to paying any costs incurred by the District should it make a submission to the LAB. He wondered aloud whether the Board could ask the City of Edmonton to pay the costs, "Do we have the opportunity of billing them for what they are thrusting upon us."

Mr. Manegre said the question of becoming a part of Edmonton was not only a matter of dollars and cents but was a question of the quality of life. "We have an education system to be proud of and we should do everything we can to protect it."

The motion to explore the Board's options in dealing with the Local Authorities Board carried unanimously.

Smoke detector alerts man

A St. Albert man was taken to hospital suffering from smoke inhalation late Sunday night after a smoke detector warned him of the impending danger.

Eighteen year old Clark Wilson of 18 Sonora Crescent was awakened by the smoke detector after a cigarette fell over the side of his bed and began smoldering on a pair of jeans. There wasn't very much damage (about $150) but a lot of smoke filled the room.

A call to the St. Albert Fire Department brought a pumper, a police car and the paramedic's ambulance. Mr. Wilson was taken to hospital by the paramedics.

In another incident, the fire department was called to Fenwick Crescent on Saturday afternoon when an electrical problem in a van caused a fire that almost completely destroyed the vehicle.

The van, driven by Roger Reynolds of 20 Fenwick Crescent was a few houses down from Mr. Reynold's home when the smoke began pouring out. A neighbour on the street saw the smoke and immediately called the fire department, but by the time the pumper arrived, the van interior was engulfed in flames.

There were no injuries resulting from the fire.

Vandalism report before board tonight

Tonight trustees of the Protestant School District will get their first chance to discuss the preliminary results of their vandalism reduction policies instituted over the past year.

The reports authors, headed by Assistant Superintendent Lowell Thronson, indicate that if an "ultimate solution" to the vandalism problem in schools is to be achieved a school-community approach will be necessary - "public and student apathy be changed into an attitude of conscious responsibility." This will require an educational program which will be introduced when "appropriate" material is available.

The authors have also made several recommendations in the report for future Board action. These include the formation of a community committee to "analyze vandalism, assess needs, and devise action plans"; informing the public of costs through the media, essay and poster contests, beautification and clean-up of schools to induce community pride, re-vitalizing the "Neighbourhood Watch" program and enlisting the support of user groups who could keep an eye on things during the periods they use the facilities. (Some of the above recommendations were included in an earlier report by Assistant Superintendent Bob Prather - now on leave with Alberta Education).

The only previous recommendation for control of vandalism which has gone beyond the 'approval in principle' stage to implementation is the "Project Incentive Pilot Study." This study, the 'flagship' of the District's fight to control the problem, financially rewards the student body for controlling vandalism within the schools.

Each of four schools chosen to pilot the program received a grant in September 1971 based on $1.50 per student. Costs of vandalism incurred during school hours are deducted from the total with the remainder going to the students' unions in each school.

So far the program seems to be working. Vandalism costs in the corresponding periods of September-December 1977 and 1978 have decreased by $1,815.71. This comes in spite of the addition of two new schools and inflation but, it does not reflect the amount of money the District will be paying out to Students' Unions in the pilot schools. That sum totalled $2,665.95 in September 1978 and has now been reduced (courtesy of acts of vandalism) to $2,044.61 by the year's end.

Schools also reported a decrease in non-cost vandalism (nuisances such as plugged toilets, etc.) which appears to indicate a growing awareness of the undesirability of vandalism.

Some suggestions for improvement in the Project Incentive Program are included in the administration's report. These include inducing a little "friendly competition" between schools, investigating ways of increasing the enthusiasm of older students, poster and essay contests, and the employment of daytime custodians with maintenance responsibilities.

Decisions on the recommendations may or may not be made at this evening's meeting but some direction will definitely be given by trustees to the administration.

Needs of Handicapped discussed

The St. Albert Association for the Handicapped held a general meeting on January 10, 1979, at the Senior Citizens Centre.

The meeting was highlighted by a dialogue with staff members from St. Albert Community Services.

There was a discussion on existing services and perceived needs as related to the handicapped in our society.

There is a very real need for the community to be aware of educational bargaining for the handicapped and how this inter-relates with recreational and vocational programming.

The St. Albert Association for the Handicapped wishes to thank the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 271 for their generous gift of five hundred dollars. Eyla Rogers and Ron Yeats accepted the contribution on behalf of the Association.

Hazel Hammond will be attending future meetings of the Inter Club Council as a representative of the St. Albert Association for the Handicapped.

EDITOR - VICKY KNIGHT

Cause Celebre verdict guilt by ambiguity

By Vicky Knight

Every so often, events transpire of a nature so bizarre that writers of various media take pen in hand in the hopes of dishing them up as an art. MacBird comes to mind, a dramatic work that took a satiric look at LBJ and the Tet offensive. The movie Badlands reconstructed a monstrous series of murders committed by a pair of psychopathic teen-agers. These two works achieved some degree of success: the first because it was satirical and so not restricted to factual representation; the second because the author was able to investigate the motivation of the principals. In 'Cause Celebre' however, Terrence Rattigan is faced with a trickier task and his success is debatable.

The play examines a celebrated British murder case of the twenties, involving a trio of Bournemouth residents. The victim was Francis Rattenbury, brilliant but unstable architect of the British Columbia Parliament buildings. Charged with the murder were his wife, Alma Rattenbury and later, her young lover, George Wood. The play unfolds Mrs. Rattenbury's efforts to shield Wood, and attempts unsuccessfully to reveal her muddled motives.

The problem with this sort of thing lies primarily in the characterization. The principals of the Rattenbury case are long dead and thus unable to shine any light on the complex reasoning behind their actions. Thus the playwright must begin with the events, and from there manufacture the motivation that will give some logic and order to those events. This is a reversal of the usual creative process; in which the characters are built up in onion-like layers, to be systematically peeled away and revealed in the course of events. However, with no real awareness of the character in the first place, there can be little revelation. Alma Rattenbury remains as enigmatic in death as in life.

CREDIBILITY STRETCHED

Glynnis Johns took the role of Alma, but even her considerable talents were inadequate to overcome the obstacles of miscasting and inadequate character development. We know that Alma had been a flapper, and presumably a member of some echelon of bluebloods. I would have thought this type could have been better suggested by a more ephemeral type than Miss Johns, someone having an air of fine drawn dissipation. Miss Johns is too jovial, seeming more likely to be bustling in the kitchen than hustling in the boudoir. From the outset it is difficult to decide whether she is an uncaring sensualist or merely an unhappy, unfulfilled wife. Please Turn to Page 13

Music ... as I hear it!

By Razbo

Red Garland's latest is impressive

Two years ago, Red Garland, Nat Adderley, Harold Land, Ira Sullivan, Ron Carter and Frank Butler put together an album called RED ALERT (Galaxy). It was released last year, and restores my faith that quality jazz is still being turned out. The boys on the album have been around for a while, Red Garland started out in Dallas playing the clarinet, when he was discovered by trumpeter, singer, leader Hot Lips Page. Since 1945 Red has played with most of the top names in the world of jazz. He brought back long lost elements of jazz piano and made them contemporary.

Nat Adderley has been playing the coronet since 1950 and compliments Red very well. Nat comes across best on "Theme For A Tarzan Movie," which he wrote. He also wrote the title tune "Red Alert."

One of the few first-rate "hard bop" jazzmen, Harold Land, is a self-taught tenor saxophonist. He brings a new dimension to "Stella By Starlight" on this album.

Ira Sullivan is the other tenor on the album and is highlighted on "The Whiffenpoof Song" on side one, which didn't impress me all that much. Ira's musical background is quite a family affair, being taught the trumpet by his father, and the sax by his mother.

Bassist Ron Carter is the youngest member in the sextet at 42. He is one of the foremost bassists around today and has played with practically all the greats, since 1960.

Frank Butler lays down good drum work throughout the album, but more so on "It's Impossible" which features only Red, Ron and Frank.

The whole sextet plays together only on "Red Alert" and "Sweet Georgia Brown." One thing that irks me is the album cover, which I think leads people to think that the product inside is cheap. It isn't.

NICK GILDER!

Next week, as long as all goes well, I will be delving into the life of Nick Gilder since his retirement from Sweeney Todd.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

From Roger Miller's song "Husbands and Wives":

"It's my belief pride is the chief cause in the decline in the number of husbands and wives." A good version of the song can be heard on Ringo Starr's album GOOD-NIGHT VIENNA.

G Textile show next weekend

On February 17 and 18 St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild is featuring a textile show which will be on display for viewing and for sale, at the Lacombe Clubhouse Saturday and Sunday, January 27 and 28 from 1 - 4 p.m.

While all Guild members are asked to contribute in their own way we will be featuring in a special way two proficient guild weavers Ria Bogaert and Verna Allenby.

This week let's take a closer look at Ria Bogaert. Ria has been living in St. Albert since 1974. Her first weaving course was taken at Victoria Composite High School in 1972, although she'd been interested in the craft in her native country Holland. She then took several workshops given by well known weavers from outside Canada and was soon invited by the Edmonton weavers to give a workshop for their members.

As a member of the Arts and Crafts Guild in St. Albert she began teaching Loom Weaving I on table looms in 1975. When the City of St. Albert took over programs in 1976 a Weaving II class was added for floorlooms. Ria also does demonstrations for the Alberta Provincial Museum and Archives.

Ria enjoys going back to the basics. She spins her own sheeps wool purchasing wool from local farmers, then dyes the wool to create her own colour. Many people today appreciate all the hand workmanship of clothing made from scratch.

For the textile show Ria has made some transparent hangings in a special Scandinavian technique as well as pillows, runners, jackets, ponchos, from mohair or sheepswool as well as lampshades. Usually wall hangings are made only on order as Ria has no storage facilities for extra work. Look to next week's Gazette for special pictures of Ria's work and to see it first hand come to our textile show February 17 and 18.

Although the show is at the Lacombe Clubhouse the Art Centre Gallery store will be open during the exhibition hours from 1 - 4 both Saturday and Sunday. Remember our Gallery store is open every week on Thursday from 7 - 9 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 1 - 4 p.m. at the Art Centre on Sunset Boulevard, behind the Sturgeon Tennis Courts.

Celebre

Continued From Page 9 desperately needing affection, physical and otherwise. The playwright seems unsure as well, and his script is ambiguous on this point. Questions as to her real motives crop up throughout the play. If the object of taking a lover was affection as well as sex, why baldly hire a stranger with no idea of his capacity for love? And if sex was the sole motivation, why die for him? Surely a few tears of regret would have sufficed. Was this woman a dizzy twit with overworked hormones and a flair for the dramatic, or was she the well-intentioned victim of her own delusions? It is never made clear and each conclusion brings its own contradictions. Miss Johns handled it like the trupper she is, even turning the ambiguities to advantage on occasion, creating a certain mystique for Alma. However, such mystique should eventually be dispelled as the puzzle of Alma is solved. It never is.

From the point of view of the actor's art, removed from the demands of dramatic credibility, Miss Johns achieves a kind of raucous brilliance at times. The scene where she attempts to confuse the police by playing the drunken bawd is powerfully repugnant. Her transformation to the sweet lady whose charm disarms a crusty warder is endearing. But which is Alma? We never find out and are left with a series of vignettes rather than any ordered, plausible development.

MORSE MASTERFUL

Any sense of the suspenseful, progressive narrative is due in large part to Barry Morse. His O'Connor was a relief to watch after the crazy guilt character of Alma. Nothing too complex or incredible here -- merely a sharp lawyer wishing to avenge an ancient golf grudge he holds for the prosecutor. Morse picks up the pace and conveys a sense of urgency that is otherwise strangely lacking in a play dealing with adultery, murder, justice and mercy. He has an acute sense of timing and he and Brendan Barry played off against each other with exhilarating sparkle. Never having seen Mr. Morse on the stage I was amazed at the dynamic energy he projects. Television is a dulling medium which seems to drain vitality such as his. Live, he is a treat.

As George Wood, David Ferry turned in a fine performance, distilling the arrogance of youth to an obnoxious essence. His calculated brutality towards Alma was vaguely reminiscent of Stanley Kowalski's treatment of Blanche in 'Streetcar Named Desire'. However, George's complete lack of redeeming or even interesting qualities raises even more questions about Alma's defence of him, suggesting he might have fulfilled darker needs that are not brought forward. Was he a champion lover who profited from his talent? If so, why was he obsessed with the middle-aged Alma to the point of murdering her spouse? The gigolo's fondness for the good life usually stops short of capital crimes for which punishment is inevitable. If he was actually in love with Alma herself, then her attraction for him should have been explained. More muddled motivation.

The main plot is shadowed by a somewhat extraneous sub-plot, which is so neatly parallel to the main action that it too must be factual. It's just too tidy to be acceptable fiction. Edith Davenport is the jury foreman and she too is obsessively involved with a youth -- her son Tony. Like Alma, she is willing to sacrifice all for her young man. As Edith, Barbara Chilcott is competent but was unable to suppress a certain vitality that would be foreign to the cramped, obsessive Edith. Ted Dykstra played the smother-loved Tony. Ted is a former St. Albert resident, making his Citadel debut. His Tony was a bit of a blank slate, which is a not inappropriate interpretation of a boy wavering between manhood and adolescence. # Canadian comedy to premiere January 25

Edmonton playwright James DeFelice says that his new play Take Me Where The Water's Warm, premiering January 25 at Northern Light Theatre, is an addition to the rather short list of "pure Canadian comedies. And Northern Light is one of the most suitable companies in Canada to do the play," he adds. "Certainly the best one to premiere it."

DeFelice notes that "Scott

Swan's success with 'style' plays at Northern Light makes him the ideal director for my play. And I had a number of actors in the Northern Light company in mind as I wrote it. I visualized them playing the parts." Mr. DeFelice is well known for his screenplay of "Why Shoot the Teacher."

Take Me Where The Water's Warm is a charming and witty full-length play about a distinguished author who seeks out an old flame to ask for his love-letters back. In fact, he gets back a lot more than he asks for, as all his well-wrought notions of Love and Art are turned completely upside down.

Much of the cast of Take Me Where The Water's Warm is drawn from Northern Light's resident company. Kathie Ball and James Forsythe play young lovers whose on-again, off-again courtship is complicated by his ambition to become a sculptor. Angela Gann and Wally McSweeney play salt-of-the-earth parents who never asked to have a sculptor for a son. Michael Murdock plays the jaded author and Marilyn Gann is his once-upon-a-time love. C. Holte Davidson plays a pragmatic father whose daughter is about to run off to Paris, and Allan Lysell is Jack Spriggs, the local postman whose late arrival resolves matters with an unexpected twist.

Take Me Where The Water's Warm will be presented in its full two-hour form at lunch hours and on weekend evenings, January 25 through February 18, in the Art Gallery Theatre. Performances are Tuesday through Friday at 12:10 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Theatregoers are advised to reserve early, at any Bay outlet (Downtown, Southgate, Londonderry, ph. 424-0121), the Students' Union Box office in the Hurl Mall (ph. 432-5145), and the Northern Light Theatre Box office (ph. 429-3110). Tickets will be on sale at the door as available.

SOMETHING'S 'FISHY'

Nu-West Housing's Irv just dropped by the St. Albert Day Care Centre Friday to hang a plaque over the aquarium Nu-West donated to the kids in December. The aquarium was located in the sales office of a Nu-West housing project which is now sold out. Irv says the show home visitors most fascinated by the fish were children making the Day Care Centre a natural choice for the aquarium's new home. The plaque reads "Kids love fish, Nu-West loves kids."

His intense feelings regarding his parents' relationship were a bit odd for a boy at the age when his interests should lie more with his own sexuality. However, this hinted that Tony might have some of his mother's intensity. Otherwise, he was sincere and pleasant, a striking note of normality in a psychological circus.

Micky Maunsell, an actress of great versatility, appeared briefly but memorably as Stella, Edith's arch and earthy sister. Expressing Stella's blithe snobbery with whinnying British nasality, she joined Morse in providing the only light touches, which were a welcome diversion in this muddled psychodrama. Walderdale veteran Jack Wilson turned in another fine performance as Rattenbury. He has absolute control on stage, a fact which makes him something of a scene stealer -- his refusal to be rushed makes everyone else look anxious. The role doesn't begin to delineate Rattenbury the genius or the madman, but Wilson drew from it all he

Paul Kane Kibitzer

By Shauna Oor

With the commencement of the second semester of the '78-79 school year, the experimental program of EWAD comes to a close.

EWAD stands for Education With A Difference. It is taught by Mr. Fred Schoenrock, a social major. He obtained his degree at the University of Alberta and has been teaching at Paul Kane since the fall of '67. Next semester he will be working with Alberta Education and the Alberta Heritage Advisory Committee preparing Canadian content resource material for implementation in Alberta schools next fall.

MR. FRED SCHOENROCK

EWAD ran for two semesters at Paul Kane, bucking frequent opposition, as any new idea will encounter.

I wanted to get the straight idea from Mr. Schoenrock about EWAD with no unclarity misconstruing its purpose.

Mr. Schoenrock tried to instill three main ideas into EWAD's curriculum.

Firstly, the program is student oriented, based on the belief that, until something is meaningful to the student, no "true learning" will take place. In this case, "true learning" is based on the individual's own needs.

This can be compared to traditional learning where a course is teacher centered; the teachers determine the curriculum and evaluation of the course, whereas, in EWAD, students determine their own destiny.

Secondly, the program is community involved. This is based on the belief that learning varies with the number and frequency of experiences of different environmental interactions people encounter. The learning will also vary with the intensity of those experiences.

Lastly, it stresses interpersonal relationships and human interaction. "We are social creatures and we must interact with other human beings," says Mr. Schoenrock. EWAD gives students the opportunity to have new experiences meeting new people.

The objectives of this course are:

- to enable students to have more say in their own education;
- to give students more input into how they would like to learn and experience things that are meaningful and interesting to them, not only to higher authorities.

The students learn through experiences, with the aid of textbooks and human knowledge, rather than just accepting ideas as they are presented to them without understanding why or how.

It is to help students become decision makers, problem solvers and communicators. It teaches them how to interact with others in as many environments as possible.

It gives them something to be committed to guided by their own responsibilities. Their goals are not set by adults but by themselves with the help of adults, and therefore the goals have meaning. Usually, the only goals left for the students to fulfill are those set by their parents or other adults. EWAD helps them set goals for themselves and gives school a meaning and direction.

In general, EWAD has a two-fold purpose. It makes each individual's life more purposeful and prosperous (not materialistically but in worth and happiness both of the individual and in those with whom he interacts).

Also, it enables individuals to work together towards bettering society. Let me elaborate a moment, it Please Turn to Page 18

Enterprise Column

Your Enterprise council has really taken off - each group has a number of projects happening with many more in store.

Winter carnival is our biggie right now. If you or anyone would like to take part in or put on an event, we will be ready to go with all sorts of activities February 17 and 18. We have the movie "King Kong," ice sculptures, sleigh rides, tug of war, skating and much much more. Give Enterprise a call for more information 459-6601.

We have a regular gym night every Tuesday evening from 8:30 - 10 p.m. at Sir Alexander Mackenzie School. Last week we played a bit of floor hockey - but your suggestions for other activities would be welcome.

Bowling anyone??? Come down to Grandin Bowl for 3:30 on Monday, January 29. Prizes are in store for the champions.

Campers are off this weekend to fend off the weather at Lake Wabamun. Their next meeting will be January 31. Give Marcel a call for details of time and place at 458-2172.

Don't forget to tune in 9 p.m. every Wednesday for "Operation Enterprise" on Cable 5. This week in the continuing episode of Suds some rather unusual shenanigans take place when students of Albert Cane High invade Mrs. Frueds office.

Hideout Column

By Sharon Beale

Congratulations go out to all those who have fought their way through this semester ... And to those who didn't quite make it - c'est la vie.

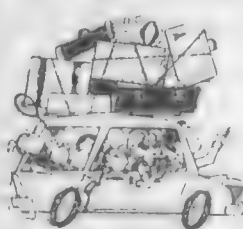

We have postponed the date that nomination forms have to be in to January 29. They're available down at the Centre, which, I might add, won't be open this week at lunch hour a result of the mental agony of finals that many of us are going through. Elections are going to be held February 5 from 11:30 - noon, 3 - 4:30, and 7:30 - 9 p.m. Everybody should feel free to come down and place their ballot.

February 23, the Hideout will be the scene of festivities and gaiety as we hold our supposed post-Valentine's Day dance. Prices, date are as usual (we keep fighting inflation off).

Last Sunday, the Centre was the site for another very successful coffeehouse held by Y.D.P. and Enterprise. As well, those in need of a good laugh should have seen the Teen Centre booth in the mall last Saturday afternoon. By unanimous vote it was decided our slide presentation needed some accompanying music, so several inspired executive members ran over to the record store and after much indecision, returned with a tape of the Village People. We soon discovered that the slides changed with the temps of the music. It took one minute to move through our entire presentation and anybody without a photographic memory walked (or should I say stumbled) away in a cloud of confusion. Oh well, (heavy sigh).

MY 'NEVER AGAIN' LIST By Don Gossett

Never again will I confess discontent for "I have learned, in whatsoever state (circumstances) I am, therewith to be content" Philippians 4:11.

Never again will I confess unworthiness because "He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him" 1 Corinthians 5:21.

Never again will I confess confusion because "God is not the author of confusion, but of peace" 1 Corinthians 14:33, and "We have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God: that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God" 1 Corinthians 2:12.

Never again will I confess persecution for, "If God be for us, who can be against us?" Romans 8:31.

Never again will I confess the dominion of sin over my life because, "The Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death" Romans 8:2, and "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us" Psalm 103:12.

Never again will I confess insecurity because "When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet... for the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken" Proverbs 3:24-25.

Never again will I confess failure because, "Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us" Romans 8:37.

Never again will I confess frustration, for "Thou wilt keep Him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because He trusteth in thee" Isaiah 26:3.

Never again will I confess fear of the future, "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him, but God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit" 1 Corinthians 2:9-10.

Never again will I confess troubles because Jesus said, "In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" John 16:33.

Wm. Samoridny dead at 75 years

On January 4, 1979 Mr. William Samoridny of Edmonton, formerly of Redwater, Alberta, passed away suddenly at 75 years of age. Born December 4, 1903, William was the youngest child of John and Mary Samoridny who emigrated from Austria to the Andrew district of Alberta.

On February 25, 1933, he married Jean Bachul and they farmed in the Andrew area until 1941, when they moved to Kenora, Ontario, then to Edmonton in 1943.

William Samoridny worked for the C.N.R. for approximately 25 years. In 1974 the couple moved to Redwater, Alberta, where they had many friends, dating back to their school days. They were active in the Pioneer Club and enjoyed many good times there. When his wife passed away in 1978, Mr. Samoridny moved back to Edmonton to be near his family and old friends. William Samoridny was predeceased by his wife Jean in March, 1978 and one daughter, Katie in 1945.

Saints have lost weekend

St. Albert Junior Saints came close to a lost weekend during their three-game road trip to southern Alberta, coming up with only one win, a 6-4 victory over the fifth place Calgary Chinooks Saturday night.

Friday night the league leading Calgary Canucks hung a 9-0 licking on the hapless Saints and Sunday afternoon the third place Taber Golden Suns scored three third period goals to defeat the Saints 8-5.

The shutout by the Canucks was the first ever in league action for the Saints although the same Canucks also had a 5-0 shutout in last seasons round-robin playoff series.

Saints did not look good in any of the three games as they were most inconsistent in their overall play. As a result they are in fourth place in the A.J.H.L. with 50 points, two behind Taber although they have two games in hand. Fort Saskatchewan is in second place with 56 points, six behind the Calgary Canucks.

Chinooks are in fifth with 34 points, 12 ahead of Red Deer and 20 up on last place Sherwood Park Crusaders, who ended their losing streak at 25 games with a 4-3 win over Red Deer Thursday night.

Friday night's game was decided at the 6.17 mark of the opening period when Brad Neufeld was allowed to roam at will in front of the Saints net and slipped in a Please Turn to Page 23

Anita Hunter rink to Senior Provincials

St. Albert Curling Club's Anita Hunter rink are on their way to the Senior Ladies Provincial Playdowns, to be held in Grande Prairie February 5 - 9.

10-4. Hadie Manley, who Hunter beat in the semi's, eventually went on to win the B side, and will also go to the Provincials in Grande Prairie. Thirteen teams representing 13 zones participated in the playdowns.

The Grande Prairie Playdowns will see six of Alberta's top rinks taking to the ice. Two are from the Northern Alberta Zone, two from the Southern Alberta Zone, and two from the Peace River Zone. The overall winner from the Senior Ladies Provincial Playdowns will advance to represent Alberta in the Canadian Senior Ladies Playdowns in Vernon, B.C. in March.

Anita Hunter's talented rink consists of Bernice Cook, Theresa Jackowich and Jess Niblett.

ANITA HUNTER

The St. Albert foursome gained a berth by winning the A event in the Northern Alberta Senior Ladies playdowns in Grande Centre, over the weekend. Hunter's rink defeated the Wintonyk rink of Athabasca in the final

Hec Gervais out

St. Albert Curling great Hec Gervais, has been eliminated from further action in the Edmonton Area Curling Club's 64 rink playdown.

Gervais' rink opened last week with a pair of shutouts right off the bat, and was quickly favoured in the hearts of many to make it to the finals.

On Saturday, Tom Kroeger downed Gervais 8-2 in an

A event qualifying match.

Sunday, Gervais took two more losses, eliminating him from the playdowns. Gervais lost to Paul Devlin 7-6, and to Ken Ursuliak 8-6.

In the championship game, to be played on the weekend at the Shamrock, Ernie Hilton will meet Tom Kroeger, both from the Derrick Club.

LOOKS LIKE AN OUT TO ME

This member of the Edmonton Tigers Snow Ball team manages to make a good connection on this pitch at the Over-the-Line Snow Ball Tournament on the weekend. Unfortunately, the hit landed on the outside of the "fair area," resulting in an "out". Twenty-six teams entered in the event, with the top two teams winning free entry to the Canadian Snow Ball Championships in Edmonton next month.

O.T.L. Snow Ball - crazy and fun

The Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association's first crack at hosting an "Over the Line" Snow Ball tournament turned out more funny situations than anticipated. Fortunately, the funny scenes happened on the ball "diamonds," and not in the planning.

Even though it was the first time for the event in St. Albert, the tourney went rather well, with no big mistakes surfacing from the preparations.

Tournament chairman Lenny Grew was very excited at the success and good fun of the event, and is looking forward to a bigger and better classic next year.

Gene Lytwyn, president of the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association commented, "This event has certainly proven to be a successful fund raising event in aid of the construction of Meadowview Diamonds."

On the night before the tourney, a hospitality night was held with the players meeting their opponents, and at the same time finding out who was playing who in the first round. On Saturday night, a banquet and dance was held to cap off the enjoyable weekend.

The "A" side winners and tournament champions turned out to be the team entitled "White Rum." Team members were Rod Gauf, Keith Tilden, Dale Lawson and Ron James. The team was also winner of the Best Defensive Team award, after allowing just one run in the five games they played. Keith Tilden received an honour of his own, as he was selected the Best Defensive Player in the tourney. All members of the White Rum team are from St. Albert.

The "B" side winner was the Krydor Rockets, consisting of Danny, Ron, Harvey and Terry Woytiuk.

The "C" event was added to the tournament, with the Custom Printers squad winning that one. Brian Stevens of Custom Printers was selected as the Best Offensive Player of the tourney.

Both the "A" and "B" winning teams will receive free entry into the Canadian O.T.L. Snow Ball Championships, to be held at Edmonton's Commonwealth Stadium February 9, 10 and 11.

A total of 26 teams took part in the event, making it successful from both the competition and the financial aspects. The proceeds from the tournament, although unknown to the Gazette at this time, will help the St. Albert Fastball Association in its efforts to construct the proposed "Meadowview Diamonds."

Marty O'Kell

On Sports

Our Gazette Snow Ball team fared rather well in the weekend tourney put on by the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association. We lost our first game, then won our next on the B side. Game number three was lost to the Old Vet's, and that did us in.

It sure is hard hitting the ball, with poor footing and the like. A frozen softball makes careful aiming mandatory. But it was a lot of fun, and I'm going to do it again next year. As a matter of fact, our team will be entered in the Canadian Snow Ball Championships at the Commonwealth Stadium in Edmonton next month. There will be 128 teams in that one, but luckily we'll be in the media event, giving us a fair chance of winning.

It was brought to my attention that certain services are lacking at the Calahoo arena. The CKST Angels Midget B team play some of their regular season games out there, and a week and a half ago, one of the visiting team players went down after a body check. Apparently there was no stretcher available, the first aid kit was locked up in a room, and the injured player had to be dragged off the ice on a POTATO SACK. Sounds very "bush league" to me. Someone should get off their butt and make sure these important medical items are available, it would be a lot cheaper than a law suit.

I guess you have to get up with the birds these days to book a racquetball court at the Fountain Park Recreation Center. I tried going at 8 a.m. last week to book a court for three days later in the evening. "Sorry," I was told, "we are all booked up." This morning I was up earlier, so I went again in person at 7:30, but to no avail. Same old line. "All booked up." Maybe I'll have to try going at 6 a.m. Using the telephone is useless unless you want something in the middle of the day.

On the same subject, next week there will be an article on "racquetball" in St. Albert, with a close look at the present facilities and the two clubs that will be opening soon. So...stay tuned.

I was happy to see the Pittsburgh Steelers win the Super Bowl over the Dallas Cowboys, however, a little disappointed that they didn't win by my predicted seven point spread. Oh well, better luck next time. But the game was definitely one of the best Bowls I've seen in years. The Steelers passing attack reminded me a little of something I usually see only in the CFL.

If you are interested in the sport of Wrestling, you may want to catch some of the wrestling action this Saturday at Lorne Akins Junior High School. The wrestlers, from elementary, junior and senior high schools in St. Albert, will be competing in the first annual "St. Albert Wrestling Championships." The action, which features "Olympic Free-Style," gets underway at 9:00 a.m.

RMC Saints wallop Westlock twice in Pee wee BB play

The RMC Sports Centre Saints had a very successful weekend in the Sturgeon Pembina Pee wee BB League. On Saturday they clobbered

Westlock Crusaders 12-4 at Westlock. In the return engagement on Sunday they rang up a 12-5 win. Earlier in the week they travelled to

Devon and came away with a 8-2 victory. This week's action has Coaches Ed Alpaugh, Ovila Amyotte and Terry Shaw looking forward to next weekend's three league games and hopeful the Saints can repeat their success.

their scoring eyes for the coming games with Westlock.

RMS WHIPS WESTLOCK

On Saturday afternoon in Westlock the Saints scorers broke loose and by the end of the game had deposited 12 pucks behind the Westlock goaltender.

The Saints led 3-2 after the first period on a single goal by Greg Amyotte and a pair by Mike Holzer. Holzer picked up an assist on Amyotte's goal and Gord Trembath assisted on both of Holzer's goals.

In the second period the Saints ran wild as they fired seven goals to a lone reply by Westlock. After two periods the score read 10-3 in favour of the RMC Saints. Trent scoring on a set up from Billy Mitchell.

Goaltender Todd Cunningham played a steady game in goal turning aside 16 shots.

REPEAT PERFORMANCE

On Sunday evening in St. Albert at Akinsdale Arena the Saints repeated their Saturday win by winning by a 12-5 score over Westlock. The big gun for the Saints was Darryl Ethier who triggered four goals and became the top sniper on the Saints with a total of 11 for the season. Trent Rees was right on his heels picking up his second hat trick of the season. Eric Olson fired a pair with Stan Black, Greg Amyotte and Gord Trembath each adding a single.

In the assists bracket Stan Black and Tim Korz led the way with three each. Single assists were credited to Holzer, Olson, Webber, Rees Mitchell, Laplante, Alpaugh, Bremault and Keiser. Goaltender Todd Shaw faced 31 shots during the game and came up with some big saves in the third period for the Saints.

backhandler that Lamoureux had no chance on.

By the end of the first period, Canucks had a 3-0 lead and that was quickly raised to 8-0 at the end of 40 minutes.

Neufeld and Brian Bassen led the Calgary attack with two goals each while Jay Howard, Randy Shields, Ron Head, Kerry Ross and Kris Gorbous added singles.

Lamoureux was replaced by Brian Ford at 12.42 of the second period after allowing six goals, many of which were not his fault, while Ford was in the net for the final two.

Saturday night at the Glenmore Arena against the Chinooks, St. Albert jumped into a 3-0 lead in the first eight minutes of the first period on goals by Troy Murray, Mike Taschereau and Brian Shaw. Chinooks got on the scoreboard at 13.26 when Jamie Hodgins beat Ford from close in. While Saints Dave Inch was sitting out a tripping call, Shaw scored his second of the game at 12.27 of the middle period to give St. Albert a 4-1 lead going into the final period of play.

Jerry Wilson scored for the Chinooks at 2.34 of the third to make it 4-2, but a slapshot from the point by Garnet Clarke gave the Saints a three-goal lead just 10 seconds later. Clarke, along with Pat Poulin, were brought up from the Enoch Warriors of the Capital Junior Hockey League for the game and returned Sunday morning for the Warriors game with Devon Drillers later in the day.

Saints faltered early in the final 20 minutes, allowing the Chinooks to score a pair of goals as Kari Heikkila and Eugene O'Sullivan scored at 3.32 and 5.07 to pull within one goal.

Chinooks pulled their goaltender Dennis Meuller with a minute left to play and Saints put the game out of reach on Solheim's 28th of the season into an empty net at 19.25.

Referee Ron Burwash had a very easy night calling only five minor penalties with the Chinooks taking three.

Sunday afternoon the Saints, under assistant coach Clare Rankin, took on the Taber Golden Suns in a game that would determine third place in the Alberta Junior "A" Hockey League. The Saints win over the Chinooks and the Suns 9-6 loss to Fort Saskatchewan Traders Saturday night left the two teams tied with 50 points each.

Rankin, who will assist Coach Doug Messier for the rest of the season saw the Saints fall behind 3-1 early in the first period but fought back on a pair of powerplay goals by young Troy Murray to gain a 3-3 tie going into the second period of play.

Golden Suns scored a pair of goals in the second period to take a 5-3 lead as John Zsednai and John Jacobson beat Brian Ford in the Saints net.

Ken Solheim and Brian Shaw scored at 2.14 and 5.16 to start the third period off and appeared on their way as they controlled most of the play.

Saints then took a nose dive for the remainder of the period as they allowed the Golden Suns to roam at will inside the St. Albert end and lost the game for all intents and purposes at 6.44 when Rick Wentz went through the defense and slipped a high shot past Lamoureux who replaced Fort to start the period.

Defenceman Mike Taschereau went off for elbowing at 7.18 and allowed the Suns to put their powerplay into operation which produced the clincher 42 seconds later. Wilf McGinnis added the final Taber goal at 15.54.

Saints will be at home tonight against the rival Fort Saskatchewan Traders and then will host the Golden Suns Friday night. Both games start at 8 p.m.

Troy Murray and Brian Shaw were the most effective Saints on the weekend with both scoring three times while Shaw chipped in with four helpers and Murray, one.

Pontiacs held to draw by Leduc

Most hockey teams would be quite satisfied with picking up five of a possible six points, but chances are the Ron Hodgson Pontiacs are not. In the battle for first place with the Sherwood Park Raiders in the Hwy. 14 Juvenile A League, the locals were "tripped up" Monday night at the Perron Arena when held to a 3-3 tie by the visiting Leduc Stingers. The Raiders had another good week winning all three games.

On Friday night at the Akinsdale Arena, St. Albert swamped the Enoch Icemen to the tune of 15-2, and followed up with a hard fought 4-2 victory over the Ardrossan Lions in Ardrossan on Sunday night.

The Pontiacs travel to Leduc on Friday for an 8:30 tussle, and then hit the road again on Monday night for an 8:15 battle with the front running Raiders.

PONTIACS ON SCORING SPREE

Each member of the Ron Hodgson crew collected at least one point with the exception of goalie Scott Gannon. Colin Parayko, Kent Middleton and Rob Tooth all fired hat tricks as the locals held period leads of 5-1 and 13-2 over the Icemen.

COLIN TOOTH

Right behind Harmon

Other Pontiac marksmen were Cliff Greening, Jeff Harmon, Calvin MacAulay, Colin Tooth, Keith Heyburn and Murray Riddell. Defenceman Brad Hancock had a big night collecting four assists, while Rob Tooth had three helpers to give him a six point night.

Enoch was only able to suit up 10 players, and this disadvantage, combined with the Pontiacs relentless offensive pressure turned the match into a visiting goal-tenders nightmare.

LIONS WERE TOUGH

St. Albert's John Provincial opened the scoring at 2:53 of the opening period on a set-up by Rob Tooth. Three minutes later, Elliott knotted the count for the Lions and neither team could find the range again till the middle frame.

Elliott gave the hosts a 2-1 lead early in the second, but Brent Galbraith in the Pontiacs net closed the door on them for the remainder of the night. Harmon evened the score midway in the period and fired the eventual winner at 13:26 with Greening and Bob Crawford assisting. Newcomer Bob Fellows and Heyburn drew assists on Harmon's equalizer.

JEFF HARMON

Pontiac scoring leader

The Lions came close on several occasions in the final 20 minutes, and the Pontiacs were never really "out of the bush" till Heyburn's quick wrist shot at the 18:52 mark found the target.

STINGERS HAPPY WITH TIE

Colin Tooth fired a pair for the locals and assisted on Middleton's tally as both teams managed one goal in each period for the split in points.

Parker gave the visitors the lead midway through the opening period but Tooth converted a Bob Fellow pass seconds later to tie it up.

Wyatt put the Stingers ahead 2-1 midway in the game only to have Tooth erase the lead shortly after with help from Provincial and Riddell.

Carma's kool Krupp in exhibition play

Last Sunday, Carma's St. Albert Bantam B's travelled to Beaumont for a return match with the Edmonton G.W.S. Krupp AA bantam team. After three losing efforts in league play last week, with several players off with the flu bug; it was encouraging to see the Carma's come up with some solid effort and a 5-2 win.

It took the Carma's just 14 seconds into the game to get on the scoreboard with a good point shot by Tony Baller, assisted by Don Neil and Kevin Laliberte. One minute later, Krupp tied it up with Dean Bester scoring on a wild scramble in front of Chris Lane. At 16:19 Tony Rouault put St. Albert ahead by one - assists went to Erin Oor and John Holden. First period scoring was rounded out by another St. Albert marker at 13:31 by Don Neil on a set-up by Tony Baller. The score at the end of the first period was 3-1 in favour of St. Albert; but shots on goal of 10 for St. Albert and seven for Edmonton and only one minor penalty to the Carma's indicate the closeness of play.

The second period saw only one goal, but close checking and penalties slowed the game down. At the 16:11 mark, John Findlay put one past the Krupp goalie on a beautiful three-way passing play from Mike Wells and Mike Tessier. Shots on goal were 10 for St. Albert and four for Krupp.

The third period was even in scoring with one apiece, however, the Carma's out-shot Krupp 13 to 5 in spite of taking three of the four minor penalties handed out. With less than two minutes gone in the third, Erin Oor blasted one in on a great set-up by John Lenz; and at the six minute mark, Krupp responded with Rod Pruden on a powerplay effort. St. Albert outshot Krupp 33 to 16 overall, and exhibited a strong skating effort by all in their 5-2 victory. Goaltending was shared equally by Chris Lane and Mike Willems, who both put in strong performances, with each allowing only one goal.

The Carma's next home game is this Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Perron Arena, with Spruce Grove as the visitors.

PONTIAC PASSES: Stalwart defenceman Brad Hancock is now an official resident of Calgary, and will see only limited action on the Pontiac blueline from here on in. Although the official announcement has not been made concerning St. Albert holding the Juvenile A play-downs in mid-March, you can bet your last buck that Brad will be keeping in shape for that ... Newcomer Bob Fellows landed in town from the Windsor Juveniles, and has not looked out of place filling in at centre for injured Todd Winquist ... Todd could be finished for the season with knee surgery, but let's hope he is one of these "fast healers" ... Coaches Harmon and Sage are now faced with the situation of having to put together a few new line combinations and hopefully will be able to stick with them. Injuries are something nobody has control over, but management's job could be made a lot easier in the home stretch if the Pontiacs could

"bury the hatchet" and refrain from taking those fighting game misconducts and suspensions. With four of the locals' last 10 games against the Park, St. Albert can not settle for less than three wins against the Raiders, who seem to have stopped losing to anyone else.

CKST on winning track again

A pair of hard-earned victories has put the CKST Angels midget B hockey crew back in the thick of things in the Sturgeon-Pembina Midget B Rep Hockey League.

Last Thursday, the Angels squeaked by Spruce Grove 2-1, then on Saturday the locals outgunned Westlock to the tune of 7-4.

Against the Grove, Angel netminder Marlowe Klem came up with a superb performance blocking 30 shots. At the other end of the rink, Grove's goalie Fuhr had an equally outstanding game turning aside an amazing 50 pucks in the Calahoo arena.

The opening period saw a lot of good action but no scoring, but the Angels Martin Teuber hit the scoreboard first midway through the second. Mike Carwell and Don Trembath combined to feed Teuber. Spruce Grove tied up the game at 1-1 late in the period, with McAllister ripping the twine.

With less than five minutes gone in the third frame, Trembath picked up a rebound and fired it into the net, with assists going to Dennis O'Neill and Greg Collins. Spruce Grove pulled their goalie in the last minute of the game, but couldn't tie it up with the help of an extra attacker.

Westlock and the Angels battled it out in the Perron Arena Saturday, with Chris Donnelly getting the starting nod in the local net.

The Angels took a first period lead of 3-1 into the dressing room. Getting goals for the locals were O'Neill, Dave MacDougall and Jason Swist. Picking up assists were Rick Oleson, Doug McCarthy, Mike Murphy, Jamie Sander. Huot notched one for Westlock.

The second frame was all CKST, as they rapped home three more goals that went unanswered. O'Neill hampered in a powerplay goal, with Oleson and Sander getting assists. Murray Pennington and Trembath added assists to their totals when Teuber showed some good hustle scoring a short-handed goal. With just over five minutes left in the second, O'Neill picked up a McCarthy rebound and fired it high over the sprawled Westlock netminder.

In the third period, Westlock came to life with three goals, scored by Huot, Mueller and DeChamplain. Rick Oleson iced the cake for the Angels with a conversion from a nice pass from McCarthy.

Donnelly played a great game between the Angel pipes.

Morinville Vipers over Barrhead twice

Submitted by Lois Mulligan

The Morinville Pee-wee BB Vipers again met with success twice on the weekend, winning games against Barrhead by identical scores of 7-2.

Defenceman David Schriver and David Isle played a great part in the defensive game to keep play out of the Viper's net area.

Pointgetters in the two games were: Murray Sieliski, Sheldon Bland and Lyle Weisgerber with four points each; Wayne Dahl, Mark Carleton and Rick Mulligan with three each; Curtis

Purdue, Neil Bokenfohr and Marty Comeau with two each; with Tim Quinn picking up one point.

It seems that all but Jay Enright have beat the flu bug, and all the players are looking forward to the next game in Westlock on Saturday.

Auto dealers to sponsor North-Am keynote race

The feature race in the 1979 North-Am International Snowmobile Races in Wetaskiwin, February 17 and 18, will be the Auto Mile 441 Open.

Race Chairman Garry Cockbain said the race, sponsored by the Wetaskiwin Automobile Dealers, will be run in the 441 c.c. super modified class and will involve the fastest machines in competition today.

The race's name is derived from another of Wetaskiwin's "claims to fame."

The automobile dealers in Wetaskiwin, including those along a stretch of Highway 2A appropriately dubbed "The Auto Mile," annually sell more new cars per capita than any community in North America.

Between four and five thousand new cars leave the lots each year, which isn't bad for a community with a population of just over 7,000 residents!

Last year, the North-Am's feature race was captured by Dan Tucker, of Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, with Edmonton's Dennis Clarke in the runner-up spot.

The sponsoring automobile dealers are Adams Motors (Wetaskiwin) Ltd., Auto Haus Frohlich Ltd., Denham Ford Sales Ltd., Parkview Sales and Service, Pahal Motors (1978) Ltd., Shirley Chrysler Ltd., Toyota City (Wetaskiwin) Ltd., and Wetaskiwin Motors.

The 1978 races attracted 288 entries and nearly $13,000 was paid out in prize money.

Big Iron tourney this weekend

Jay Russell, midget division head of the Kinsmen Minor Hockey Association, advises that the annual Big Iron Tournament will be held in St. Albert this coming weekend, January 27 and 28.

The Big Iron is a midget house league level tournament first organized in 1973, with six major trophies to be awarded. Of these trophies, St. Albert businesses donated the following: Best Defenceman - Roger's Esso; Best Forward - St. Albert Pacific 66; Highest Total Points - St. Albert Texaco; Best Goals Average - Grandin Towing; Championship Cup - Weller Electric.

The number of teams involved in midget house league hockey in St. Albert has always been minimal compared to other levels (this year there are only four teams) which means these teams are required to compete against each other on a more regular basis than is desirable. The Big Iron provides a change of pace for the boys involved and allows them to test and sharpen their skills against competitive teams which are invited to the tournament.

This year's visitors are from Spruce Grove, Calahoo, Ponoka and Westlock. The four St. Albert teams are, the Harsim Construction North Stars, coached by Bob Bennett, St. Albert Sportshop Barons, coached by Barry Lesenko, St. Albert Legion, coached by Clem Brisson, and Weber Realty Canadians, coached by Elwood Shell.

This will be a double knockout tournament, with games being played in both the Akinsdale and Perron Arenas on Saturday the 27th and the Akinsdale Arena only on Sunday the 28th.

The initial four games on Saturday are as follows:

Game #1 - Akinsdale 8:15 - 10 a.m. - Harsim Const. North Stars vs Westlock;

Game #2 - Perron 7:30 - 9:15 a.m., Sportshop Barons vs Spruce Grove;

Game #3 - Akinsdale 10:30 - 12, St. Albert Legion vs Calahoo;

Game #4 - Akinsdale 12:30 - 2 p.m., Weber Realty Canadians vs Ponoka.

A full schedule and wall chart will be posted at both arenas during the tournament.

For a weekend of exciting hockey, be sure to take in the games. Everyone is welcome.

CLOSE CALL

Wayne Gretzky nearly added another point to his four point game Friday but the quick moves of the Birmingham Bull netminder robbed the youngster of his hattrick. The Oilers finished the evening up 11-3 but Sundays encounter was a little closer as the Bulls nicked the hometown club.

Johnson wins Morinville ladies spiel

In the annual Morinville Ladies Open Bonspiel held last weekend, St. Albert's Lynn Johnson defeated fellow St. Albertan Janice Kolomyjce in the final to win the first event. Third and fourth place went to Wendy Lesowec and Doris Van Tighem, both of Morinville.

In the second event, it was Vera Neveu of St. Albert over the Margaret Yacysen rink of Morinville, with Hazel Kercher and Helen Rousseau (both of Morinville) placing third and fourth.

The third event was won by Martha Sorochan of Edmonton who defeated Susie Kluthe of Morinville in the final. Cecile Como of St. Albert and Margaret Rousseau of Morinville placed third and fourth.

The sponsors of trophies for the bonspiel were the Frontiersmen Hotel in the first event, McGinnis Realty in the second, and Pat's Beauty Salon in the third.

The winner of the money doll raffle was Lori Mauch of Picardville.

The action will be fast and furious this Saturday, as Lorne Akins Junior High School hosts the first annual "St. Albert Wrestling Championships." Over 100 elementary, junior high, and high school students from 14 schools in St. Albert will be competing. For the past several months, some of the wrestlers have been gearing up for this tournament in fierce interschool competition.

The type of combat featured will be "Olympic free-style wrestling," in which opponents of equal weight are matched against each other. The successful wrestler is usually one who combines knowledge, strength, speed and endurance with the desire to win.

A unique feature of this tournament is that girls will be competing in their own separate division. Top "Canadian Amateur Wrestling Association" referees will be in attendance. The top three wrestlers in each weight categories will be awarded ribbons and the winning school will be presented with the "Lorne Akins Memorial Trophy", which has been kindly donated by Mrs. Marguerite Akins.

The action begins at 9 a.m. Saturday, January 27. The general public is invited to attend and admission will be silver collection. A good time is guaranteed for all!!!

Nu-West Canadians tie despite injuries and flu

Sunday the Nu-West Canadians visited Sherwood Park where they played the Dairy Queen Jets for the last time during the regular season. The Canadians battled to a 6-6 tie with the Park.

The game was played despite the Canadians encountering a couple of serious injury problems and at least six players were at different stages of recovering from the flu. Jimmy Hammett has damaged the ligaments in his ankle and has one foot in a cast. Todd Ewen has two broken fingers.

Both accidents happened off the ice but will keep the boys out of action for some time to come. When Coach Ed Rusnak made his first count Sunday morning it did not look like he would be able to ice a team for the evening game. Attempts were made to have the game rescheduled to a later date but the Sherwood Park club was unwilling to do so.

After re-evaluating the situation it was decided to play the game rather than losing by default and five of the six players out with the flu showed up. Stephen Gosse was at the height of the attack and could not make it. The weakness of the players recovering from the illness was evident and the Sherwood Park club, combined with a faulty time clock took full advantage of the situation and managed to come up with a tie. This is the first point the Canadians have given away during the season but they retained their undefeated status.

With eight seconds left in the game Scott Rusnak was checked heavily against the boards and an elbow squashed his head and helmet. Scott was taken off the ice on a stretcher and taken to the hospital by ambulance but later released. After x-rays and examination it appeared, thank heaven, that no serious damage had taken place.

The game itself from a St. Albert point of view showed real pride and team spirit, as the boys went out there and played their hearts out despite many of them feeling weak.

The play was very even as the score indicates. Sherwood Park as well as St. Albert exhibited some very good hockey with lots of good chances for both sides. Both R. Masbeck in the Jets goal and Brent Sedgewick, who replaced Scott Niel after five minutes of play in the Canadians goal, played excellent games and came up with some super saves.

Todd Carnelley led the Canadians scoring with a hat trick. Emanuel Viveiros scored one goal and had two assists. Fraser Watt scored one goal and has one assist. Dave Findlay scored one goal, Dean Bosch and Casey Wheatley each earned one assist.

For the Jets the scorers were evenly spread with R. Rai and G. Brouwer both scoring one goal and earning one assist. B. Martin, J. Ennis, S. Swartz, and B. Fenton all scoring one goal. I. McLean came up with a two assist effort. G. Batey, D. Silverton, B. Nelson and M. Kuanel all earned one assist.

A total of 11 penalties were handed out, three to Sherwood Park and eight to St. Albert.

The Nu-West Canadians next game will be played in the Perron Street Arena Saturday, January 27, at 7 p.m. against Leduc. See you there.

Sabres win three out of four league games

The Territorial Leasing Sabres defeated Wetaskiwin 9 to 3 in the Akinsdale Arena on Wednesday, January 10.

Geordie Filipchuk and Mitch Poulin each came through with three goals; Kevin Coyes produced one goal and three assists; Craig Rusnak and Tim Sebastian each had one goal and one assist; followed by Danny Laplante with two assists and Danny Holliday with one assist.

Saturday, the 13th, was an unlucky day for the Bantam A team, as they were defeated by the Red Deer team in that southern city by a score of 6 to 4.

Wednesday saw the Sabres return to their winning form in Leduc as they downed the hometown team 7 to 2. After a 50 minute delay due to the lack of officials it didn't take the Sabres long in getting their first goal. Dean Clarke put one between the pipes at 4:51 of the first period. He tallied for two more goals in the game. Kevin Coyes also came through with a hat trick during the evening and Mitch Poulin scored the other goal. Assists went to Poulin, Laplante, Filipchuk and Weller.

The following night Fort Saskatchewan travelled to our city to become the victims of a 4-0 defeat by our Sabres. Danny Laplante was the big gun of the evening producing a hat trick with Mitch Poulin again adding the other pointer. Assists were given to Dean Clarke, Mitch Poulin, and Craig Rusnak. Bill Havens had an outstanding night between the pipes and really deserved the shut-out.

Taking advantage of a free weekend, the Sabres travelled to Lac La Biche on Saturday, January 20 for an exhibition game against the St. Paul and District All-Stars. Without any difficulty the Sabres downed the All-Stars 9 to 2. Mitch Poulin had a great game getting a double hat trick. Other goal getters were Craig Rusnak, Billy Shaunnassy and Danny Laplante. Bill Havens and Miles Spencer shared goal-tending duties.

The Sabres next home game is tomorrow at 7 p.m. at the Akinsdale Arena.

North-Am race next month

The 10th annual North-Am International Snowmobile Races will be held in Wetaskiwin February 17 and 18.

North-Am Chairman Bert Taylor, in making the announcement, said the North-Am continues to be one of the "premier snowmobile racing events in North America."

In 1978, a total of 288 competitors vied for more than $13,000 in cash and trophies.

More than $170,000 has been awarded in purses since its inception, making the North-Am one of the most consistently lucrative events of its kind. It draws racers from many points in Canada and the United States.

The fun-filled winter carnival, which kicks off February 10, makes the North-Am a "double-barrelled" attraction, said Mr. Taylor.

The 1978 race winners came from such places as

Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, Edmonton, Sylvan Lake, Westlock, Lacombe, Kamloops, B.C., Calgary, Dawson Creek, B.C., Wetaskiwin and Terrace, B.C.

Edmonton's Dennis Clarke, the star of last year's presentation, is expected to be back to defend his title. He captured four events and placed second in another.

Gibbons doing well

The Gibbons Marlows senior hockey team is still one of the teams to beat as they command a fairly respectable record. Over the weekend, the Marlows defeated the Morinville Frontiersmen 5 - 2. Gibbons record, as of January 20, is 12 wins, two ties and four losses for 26 points in the Sturgeon Valley Senior Hockey League.

Who will be Miss Gibbons 1979?

Well, it's that time of year again to start thinking about the Gibbons Sno Ball 1979 festivities which will take place from February 16 to the 18. A big part of the celebration is the choosing of Miss Gibbons 1979. This year, like past years, the selection will be difficult as five lovely girls vie for the honour. Miss Gibbons will be chosen at a pageant on February 14 at the Gibbons School. Here's some information for you about these young ladies:

SHARON QUINTON

Sharon represents the Minor Hockey Association in Gibbons. She is 16 years old, 5 ft. 2 in., and has dark brown hair and brown eyes. Miss Quinton is presently registered in Grade 11 at Sturgeon Composite High School. Her favourite sports are tennis and swimming, but she also enjoys camping in the summer, singing, playing the piano and animals. In fact, Sharon is interested in studying animals and hopes to become a zoologist.

LYNNE MORIN

Seventeen year old Lynne Morin is also enrolled in Grade 11 at Sturgeon Composite High School. She has dark brown hair, brown eyes, and stands 4 ft. 11 ins. Lynne enjoys skidoing, swimming and baseball, but occupies much of her time with horses, riding in horse shows and showing her horse. Other hobbies include painting and drawing. Lynne hopes someday to become an architect. She represents the Gibbons Minor Soccer Association.

NYDRIE MELYNCHUK

Nydrie represents the Ag. Society this year. She is a Grade 11 student at Sturgeon Composite and hopes someday to seek employment as an airline stewardess. Nydrie is 5 ft. 4 ins., has long medium blonde hair and her eyes are blue. Sixteen year old Nydrie is quite athletic, and involves herself with gymnastics, football, tennis and she jogs every day. She enjoys dancing and playing the piano. (Unfortunately, no photo was available at press time. Maybe next week).

KATHY MANEGRE

Kathy Manegre as "Miss Curling Club 1979" will represent the Gibbons Curling Club for the competition for "Miss Gibbons 1979."

Kathy is a very active girl taking part in all sorts of school sports. She is presently involved in basketball, baseball, gymnastics, badminton, volleyball, figure skating and swimming. Kathy is also an animal lover and would like to raise collie dogs and show them.

Kathy is a Grade 11 student attending Sturgeon Composite High School. When finished Grade 12 Kathy would like to work for a year to help pay her way through university to become a social worker. Her chosen field is to help children in trouble and experiencing troubles in their homes.

SUE FREEMAN

The Rec. Board's candidate for this year is Sue Freeman a Grade 11 student at Sturgeon Composite High School. Sue participates in a wide variety of sports but her favourite is baseball. She enjoys playing the piano and is an avid reader. Sue is 5 ft. 3 ins., 16 years old, with medium brown hair and blue eyes. Someday she hopes to become a child psychologist.

SANDY BODOANO

Sandy is the Lion's Club Miss Gibbons candidate for this year. Sixteen year old Sandy is in Grade 11 at Sturgeon Composite and enjoys horseback riding, reading, drawing, and watching hockey games six nights a week. She is 5 ft. 5 ins., has long blonde hair and blue eyes. Sandy's ambition is to work with children in any way she can, and perhaps one day become a social worker.

Free band concert in Namao

The concert band of the University of Alberta and the Sturgeon Composite High School Band will be giving a public performance at the Sturgeon Composite High School on March 7, at 8 p.m.

Everyone is encouraged to attend, as it should prove to be a most entertaining evening for your listening pleasure. ADMISSION IS FREE!

FOOORRE!

With the harsh Alberta climate, people have learned to improvise when playing their favorite sport and golf is no exception. Gilean Gibson of St. Albert was one of many snow golf enthusiasts who turned out for the second annual Snow-Golf tournament at Cardiff Park, Saturday. The event is sponsored by Sturgeon Regional Recreation. Photo by Al Popli

Snow golf a hit

The second annual Snow Golf Tournament, sponsored by the Sturgeon Regional Recreation Council, was once again a smashing success with 118 people donning funny looking clothes while playing one of Canada's newest winter sports.

The tourney was held at Cardiff Park, just southeast of Morinville, with the weatherman co-operating by providing the contestants with a decent winter day.

In a non-serious category, the best dressed award went to the foursome of Colleen Wenger, Marie Duberon, Rolly Noyes and Mariel Vollrath.

On the more serious side, two overall winners emerged, with both scoring 37 on nine holes. The two winners, Dexter Dersch and Bill Munroe, will each get their way paid to Las Vegas as first prize.

In the Reeve Challenge Cup event, Redwater Mayor Alex Konasewich took the trophy.

The course took about one and a half hours to complete, and the various forms of clubs used made the tourney an entertaining event to watch.

Following play, the contestants converged on the Morinville Rec. Centre to enjoy free pizza and refreshments.

All proceeds from the tournament will be given to the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund.

In an unrelated event, Jim Newman and Rick Thorn teamed up to win the Egg Throwing contest at the tourney. Jim and Rick threw an egg from one to the other and back, with an amazing 47 yard distance taking top honours.

The Sturgeon Regional Recreation Council would like to thank all contestants and sponsors for participating in the event, making it a lot of fun and a great success.

1978 was a very good year for Alberta Hog Producers

Alberta slaughter hog prices reached a record high weighted average price of $69.65 (100 index) per cwt. during 1978.

Figures released this week by the Alberta Hog Producers Marketing Board should total marketings of 1,214,204 hogs and sows last year, an increase of just over five percent in volume from 1977 when the average price of market hogs was $57.20 in Alberta.

In an interview during the Alberta Pork Seminar in Banff, Hog Board Chairman Stan Price of Acme voiced satisfaction with the performance and results of the numerous improvements to the Alberta hog marketing system introduced in 1978.

Mr. Price said he was also extremely gratified by the strong support for the Board's actions demonstrated by Agriculture Minister Marvin Moore at last week's Uniform Convention in Edmonton. Mr. Moore noted the improved price relationship between Alberta and other North American markets that occurred last year. He said the climate that allowed this improvement would be insured by whatever means are necessary.

Present indications are for a modest expansion in Alberta hog production during 1979 and hog prices continuing in the $70 plus range per cwt. during the first half of this year.

Cardiff Column

By Florence Vranas

The second annual Sturgeon Snow Golf was once more held at Cardiff Park on Saturday, January 20 with well over 100 participants this year. The weatherman co-operated and everyone had a great time with many of the players arriving well costumed.

The egg throwing contest was quite hilarious to watch and much "cleaning off" was necessary due to the cool air helping to "glue" the broken eggs to hands, clothing and boots.

Winners of the Reeves Challenge Trophy was the Alex Konasewich team from Redwater.

A score of 37 resulted in a tie for first place. Dexter Dersch and Bill Monroe both won a trip to Las Vegas for their efforts.

Anyone interested in the following programs please contact me immediately at 939-2063.

A six week Macrame course taught by Norma Clark, to run every Thursday, February 1 to March 8 from 7:30 to 10 p.m. at a probable residence in Cardiff, fee $9.50.

A three week Advanced Crochet taught by Ann Kieser at her home, Tuesdays, February 6 - February 20 from 7 to 10 p.m., fee $6.75.

A two hour afternoon Care of Houseplants sponsored by Alberta Agriculture at my home on March 10 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., fee $2.00.

Also another two day cross country skiing course which covers the basic skiing and waxing techniques will once more be taught by Captain Paterson from the Canadian Forces Base at Namao. No equipment is necessary as these will be supplied if needed and are covered in the registration fees which are: adults $7.50; students $5.00 and $20.00 for four or more members of one family. The dates for this course are February 3 and February 10. Talks and practice sessions take place the first day on the grounds of the M.D. buildings in Morinville with the second day taking place at Cardiff Park. This is a great "together" sport for families as well as being assessed the best all-round fitness sport. Quite a number of people have already begun to register and no one is considered as registered until the fee has been paid. Please hurry so you won't be disappointed.

A reminder to the members of the Cardiff Community Club. The next meeting will take place at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, January 29 at the home of Shirley Keggler. See you there!

Calahoo Goldenagers hold annual meeting

By Liz McLeod

While the weather was crisp and cold, it didn't deter 26 happy senior citizens of Calahoo and district, when they met for the first time in this new year, on Wednesday, January 10 in the afternoon, at the Gazebo.

These are very important gatherings since it affords us an opportunity for togetherness and fun, as was evident again last Wednesday.

We were so pleased to welcome Mrs. E. Margretha Hough of Whitecourt, Alberta, and Mrs. Valberg Verstraete from Villeneuve, Alberta, to this pleasant afternoon.

Since there was a good representation, it was decided to hold the annual meeting also.

There was a letter from the Recreational Board, informing the group of the many courses, offered free to seniors, if they are interested, and can get eight interested people into a group, to take a course of their choice. Of course the seniors would supply the materials needed.

Another letter was from Sherritt Gordon near Fort Saskatchewan, and they sent two copies, on loan, of the book entitled: "The Fort on the Saskatchewan," for this group to read and enjoy.

All in one motion it was moved and accepted, that Mrs. G. Berry remain as president; Mrs. J. Thatcher continue as secretary and Mr. Tom Campbell remain as treasurer. The directors, and committees also remain the same.

Cards and bingo are always an enjoyable pastime until lunch time. There were no birthdays to celebrate this time but a most enjoyable time was had by all present.

Calahoo Goldenage Club will again meet on Wednesday, January 24 and visitors are always welcome.

Mrs. Jean Norris passes

By Liz McLeod

Calahoo and district were saddened by the news that Mrs. Patrick Norris of Vancouver, B.C., had passed away on December 28, 1978.

Jean and her husband, had purchased Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connor's store in the early spring of 1953, and together with their daughter and son-in-law, ran a thriving business, and were loved by all.

Tragedy struck in September of the same year, when this store burned to the ground.

Recovering from this, they moved to Edmonton and operated a garage, then moved to Violet Grove where Patrick passed on in 1955.

Jean took his body home to Nelson, B.C., for burial and later found work in Vancouver, where she remained until her death.

Jean is survived by her loving daughter Patricia and her husband, Gilbert Blum-enauer.

Her loving granddaughter, Mrs. Heather Nastase, and great grandsons Robert and Steven Nastase, all of Vancouver, B.C.

Deepest sympathy from the district is extended to the families of this well loved gracious lady.

God bless you in this hour.

All quiet for RCMP

The Morinville RCMP report to the Gazette that all was quiet on the western front, and "that's the way we like it."

In Redwater, the local RCMP had an uneventful week, with the exception of what appears to be an incident of vandalism in town. The RCMP are investigating the incident where someone kicked in a glass door at Redwater Drugs early Saturday morning. There was nothing taken from the store.

Snowmobilers - to be and where not to be

Snowmobiling is a very enjoyable pastime, especially when undertaken soberly and with the knowledge of how to enjoy it safely. Operating one of these machines in the ditches or on roads in the MD is not only unsafe, but also illegal. Constable Garrioch of the Morinville detachment told the Gazette that the distraction caused by these machines travelling in ditches has caused a number of accidents. When crossing a roadway, the operator must stop before proceeding, get off of his machine, (should look both ways) and then cross the road taking the most direct route across the roadway.

While a number of people do not have signs on their property asking snowmobilers to stay clear, it is a good idea to consult the owner of the land before proceeding. As far as operating a snowmobile in a town or village within the MD goes here's some information for you:

MORINVILLE

Snowmobilers must stay off the streets in Morinville, but they can travel down lanes at reasonable rates of speed to get out of town. Operation of snowmobiles within the town limits is not allowed after 11 p.m.

BON ACCORD

Operation of snowmobiles within the Village limits is not permitted.

GIBBONS

An advertisement appearing with the Gibbons news in this section explains clearly the Town's position on the operating of snowmobiles within the boundaries of the town.

REDWATER

The Town Office in Redwater reported they do not have many problems with snowmobile operators. The town basically follows Section 14.4 of the Highway Traffic Act, but it is suggested that snowmobiles should only be operated during the daylight hours and at reasonable rates of speed. They are also asked to stay off the golf course.

LEGAL

Operation of snowmobiles in the Village is allowed, but only at slow speeds to get out of the Village limits.

Home to the father

The parish family of Saint Jean-Baptiste de Morinville, along with friends and relatives far and near, join the Hector Boissonnault family to remember a spouse, a mother, a neighbour, a friend.

Mme. Fleurestine Boissonnault died of cancer last December 18 at 74 years of age. She, as well as her loving husband, Hector, was a child of the pioneers of the first contingent who came to found our town in 1891. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her three sons: Leon, Romeo, and Adolphe, and one daughter, Soeur Antoinette, f.j. all of Morinville. There are 19 grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Another son, Camille, had passed away in 1964. Her mother, Mme. Marie-Louise Loiseau-Lemieux, 95 years old, lives at the Youville Home in St. Albert. Her sisters Mmes Christiana Froment, Jeanette Champagne, and Alice McDonald as well as brother Hector also live in Morinville. Three other members of her own family had preceded her in death: Alphonse from Falher, Alberta, last December, 1977; Irma, Mme Raymond Gibeault of Renton Wa. U.S.A. in 1974; and Philippe from Campbell River, B.C. in 1968.

If the saying "Vivre, c'est s'adapter" (living is to adapt oneself) has value, then Fleurestine's life was indeed a full life. She would be and do what our grandparents also are and do to the best of her ability, and that, when hers and theirs was not our push-button era, but rather the make-do-with-what-is-at-hand time and place. Yet her life was one of fulfilling work, sound fun, and deep concern for her loved ones -- that included everybody, even whom you and I might consider a stranger.

"Mère, as she was fondly called by more people than just her grandchildren, was the type who would go along, with young or old, even at the risk of wrecking a hairdo or a picnic table-setting to partake of their pranks, often in the midst of singing or music. For her, people counted more than things ... of her children and their friends wouldn't have "raised the roof" at home the way they did many a time. A plot of her garden was her pride and joy when the Sisters would pick up lovely gladiolus for altar decorations. One might say she was a born nurse (less the RN degree) for the times she was called at the scene of an accident and intuition guided to provide the right care. While chairman of the Les Dames de Sainte-Anne, she once raided her own home pantry of 20 quarts of canned chicken to come to the rescue of the cooks who catered to a banquet crowd greater than expected. In her later years, the Club Rendez-vous rated very high in her appreciation. Cushions, house-cleaning, slippers, "tourtillères," and of course card games, were her specialties.

One could reminisce for a long, long time, and at many a place ... May her soul rest in peace. May we pray for her and hers; may we pray to her also, as people who believe que "Jésus est Verbe, Voie, Vérité, et Vie." (Jean 1: 14 et 14:6).

The Hector Boissonnault family wish to thank the parish and all our friends and relatives everywhere for the affection and sympathy bestowed on us on the occasion of the death of our spouse and mother.

Alcomdale News

By Beryl Bailey

Mr. and Mrs. David Falls and infant daughter, Lynn, spent Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. Falls' parents, in Belfast, Ireland. They returned home after the New Year and report a very happy visit with relatives and friends but conditions in Belfast are very difficult in many ways. Unrest and strikes are making matters much worse. Since their return they have as house guest a friend, Miss Monica Docherty of Lakeland, Florida, U.S.A., formerly of Belfast, Ireland. Miss Docherty is enjoying the Canadian winter. When she was leaving Florida the temperature was 70 degrees Fahrenheit. Quite a difference!

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Benson of Independence were recent dinner guests of the latter's aunt, Mrs. J. M. Bailey.

The James Doidges' and three children motored to Dafoe, Saskatchewan and Regina, recently during Mr.

Doidge's week at home from his work. They took this opportunity for a holiday and to take Mr. Doidge's father home to Dafoe, going on to Regina to visit with Mrs. Doidge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Arnst.

The annual meeting of the Alcomdale Community League will be held January 31 in the Community Hall at 8:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome. Come and support your community. A wine and cheese party will follow the meeting.

Mrs. J. M. Bailey was an overnight guest of Mrs. R. Wills, Morinville during a recent week and enjoyed a couple of days visit.

Morinville Recreation Board News

The regular meeting of the Morinville Recreation Board was held on January 11. Owing to the festive season, it had been delayed one week.

Parks for 1979 was given high priority on the agenda. Plans for two parks in the Notre Dame area are going ahead. These parks must be seeded before we can develop them into playgrounds. Three sets of swings and one baseball backstop are to be ordered for early summer delivery. A creative park is also planned for this area, possibly adjoining the school grounds. If anyone living in this area wishes to give the board assistance in the planning of these grounds, please feel free to do so.

The orders for stoves and cookouts (or pits) have been tabled until the next meeting awaiting more information. These are for Heritage Lake.

The designated parks in the Qualico subdivision came up for discussion. The board is asking the developer to bring utilities to the designated areas, to relieve any future problems, i.e. flooding of skating rinks, and watering, lawns, trees etc.

The Morinville Lions assisted the parents in the Notre Dame area with the construction of their outdoor rink. The Recreation Board is grateful for the Lions coming to the aid of our new citizens on this project.

There are two vacancies on the Board at the present time. Any interested persons wishing to give of their spare time for the betterment of our community, please call Maureen Campbell at 939-4560.

The next regular meeting of the Morinville Recreation Board is February 1, 8 p.m. in the Cultural Centre.

CHEQUING IT OUT!

Earl Yeo, keen curler and longtime secretary-treasurer of the Town of Gibbons was happy to take charge of a provincial cheque in the amount of $145,425 from M.L.A. Ernie Jamison. The funds are for a four-sheet curling facility with arts and crafts room opened in December. Earl was one of the major movers behind the rink, but unfortunately has so far curled only three games. His many friends are hoping Earl will be back at it soon after a heart attack suffered New Year's day. Ernie and the Regional Recreation Director for M.D. Sturgeon, Larry Kirkpatrick threw eight rocks to match their skills and test the ice. And by the way, not one rock ended up in the 12 foot.

Redwater Hockey Association holds general meeting

A general meeting of the Redwater Minor Hockey Association was called to order by President B. Millar on January 4, 1979. This meeting was held at this time as some of the executive could not be present for the regularly scheduled meeting on January 9 and some points of contention had to be cleared away.

N. Daigault commented on and cleared up any questions regarding the legality of Redwater Minor Hockey imposing a penalty on late registrations - this was found to be in order and will come into complete effect during our fall of 1979 registrations.

Mr. Millar informed us that the Ag. Society has purchased a trailer for our use as additional dressing rooms to be placed along the east side of the Multiplex. Also, we received a further shot in the arm when he announced that Continental Emsco has a trailer with heat and washroom facilities which will be donated to R.M.H. to be used as dressing rooms as long as necessary. At the end of this time it can be disposed of and the proceeds to stay with the Association. Many, many thanks in advance to Continental Emsco. This is very much appreciated.

B. Kammermayer advised that Sturgeon Minor Hockey and league directors have agreed to the following discipline with regard to major penalties:

1) Fighting -- automatic two-game suspension

2) Butt end or spearing -- match penalty plus the time it takes the chairman to review the offence. If no special meeting is called, it could well take up to a month before the board could review the case in question, thus, a child could miss quite a lot of hockey time. Mr. Millar added that, on a local level, another game or so suspension could be imposed if this action was felt necessary.

Although this kind of action is not a direct reflection on the coach, I do feel that each coach should strongly emphasize the above to every player on his team so that everyone is aware of the consequences of such behaviour and the harmful effect it would have on his team.

The question of team sponsorship and sweater colors was brought to the floor and a lengthy discussion followed.

Although there is no hard and fast rule regarding colors, it was a gentleman's agreement by the league directors approximately three years ago that each town would choose a basic colour for their town - ours being basically blue. The reason for this was so that teams within the league would not be dressed the same, thus making it easier for the referees and players to tell one team from another. The feeling of the group was that we should continue to use basically blue sweaters for our teams. A problem arising with the pee-wee team and a second sponsor without Redwater Minor Hockey Association's authorization was resolved with the money of the second sponsor to be returned and the original sponsor continuing as such. Possibly the second sponsor would be interested in sponsoring our midget team instead, as they have no sponsor at this time.

It has been brought to our attention that several families were not contacted for the

January 3 meeting and felt this was intentional. This was definitely not the case -- it was simply because one of the ladies who offer their time to phone everyone in such cases happened to be on holidays and some of the people on her list were missed. Please accept our apologies. Our phoning committee has done an excellent job and has helped to keep our association active. We have now made up a master list of all members, which we have, so that if a similar situation arises, everyone will be contacted; also, Mrs. Hess has been added to the phoning committee to eliminate long distance calls.

Notice To Snowmobile Users Within The Town Of Gibbons Limits

On January 26, 1977 Council, working in conjunction with the Snowmobile Club, introduced a bylaw to control the use of snowmobiles within the Town of Gibbons boundaries. This bylaw being Bylaw No. 4/77 is printed below:

BYLAW NO. 4/77

A BYLAW OF THE COUNCIL OF THE VILLAGE OF GIBBONS TO CONTROL THE USE OF SNOWMOBILES WITHIN THE VILLAGE OF GIBBONS BOUNDARIES.

The Council of The Village of Gibbons given authority under Section 14.4 of The Highway Traffic Act duly assembled enacts the following:

51st Avenue can only be crossed at the east end of the school.
2. Main Street (50th Avenue) is out of bounds to all snowmobiles; this street is not to be travelled on or crossed at any time.
3. When roads are used within village limits, snowmobile traffic must travel on the extreme right hand side of the road giving right-of-way to all other traffic.
4. When snowmobiles are operated within the Village limits their speed is not to exceed 10 miles per hour at any time.
5. The time of snowmobile operation for weekdays is to be between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 p.m.
6. Streets and alleyways are to be used only to gain access or egress from Village limits.

Smart shoppers read the labels

Do you know what you're eating?

A lot of pre-packaged foods are taken for granted. Shoppers accept the product's name on the can or box without ever wondering what's inside it.

It's easy to find out -- just read the label. The ingredients are listed there in descending order of proportion.

Here's an example. See if you can guess the name of the product from the list of ingredients: beef broth, potatoes, beef, carrots, modified food starch, corn flour, beef fat, salt, tomato paste, sugar, caramel colourings and flavouring.

If you thought it was called beef broth or beef and potato broth, you were logical but wrong. The manufacturer calls it beef stew, even though it contains more broth and potatoes than beef. So it makes good sense to read the label carefully.

Shoppers are becoming familiar with the "Best Before" label or tag which carries a date and is required on most dairy products, packed meats and baked goods. If the label says "Best Before DE 15" it means simply that the item will be fresh at least until December 15. The months of the year are easily recognized by their two-letter abbreviations.

Did you know that even the pictures on food labels must be honest? If, for instance, a package of frozen fish shows six pieces on the label, there must be at least six pieces of fish inside.

Christmas bills - shop for credit carefully

By Paddi Mills [Mrs.]
Consumer Services Officer
Consumer & Corporate Affairs Canada,
Edmonton, Alta.

Need money to pay those Christmas time bills? Well, depending on your three C's of credit ... capacity to repay, credit rating and collateral,
you have the following sources to choose from. Shop carefully. Only you will be the loser from a poor decision!

SUGGESTED RESOURCES

Borrow from Yourself ... If you have a savings account or Canada's Savings Bonds, you might consider using them instead of borrowing money which will cost you.
However, if you do not have the willpower to build up your pot again, perhaps a loan, using your savings account or bonds as security would be best.

Secured Loans are relatively easy to get when you have collateral and interest charges will be very reasonable. Recently the major banks were offering these secured loans at one to three percent below the regular consumer loan rate. Shop around and compare. Generally banks and credit unions offer the best rate.

Bank Credit Cards may provide quick cash. The banks in fact, urge borrowers wanting $500 or less to borrow it on their Charge or Master Charge cards. Small loans are not worth the cost of putting a loan on the books to most banks. Do remember however, that interest on money borrowed using a bank credit card is 18 percent per year. Also note that unlike purchases made on the card, interest starts building up the day you borrow ... not 30 days later.

If at all possible beware of finance company loans. They charge a good deal more (24% average) than do banks or credit unions. Why pay more if you don't have to?

And finally, be suspicious of any individual offering you a quick loan. Does he: date his loan contract prior to the time you actually get the cash; ask you to sign papers before the figures are filled in?; refuses to give you a copy of the contract. If so, he might be a loan shark and you might wind up paying 500 to 2500% on a loan. All this in the name of Christmas?

Food - your best buy

By Pat Doerksen
District Home Economist
Alberta Agriculture
Box 1020 - Morinville
Phone 939-4351

Why do food prices keep rising? What do we pay for when we buy food? We are all concerned about the rising prices of food. Let's take a moment now, at the beginning of a New Year to think about what our actual food costs are and how they compare with what we've spent on foods in years gone by.

Over the years the amount of money available to each person (disposable income) has risen much more than food prices. The average disposable income in Canada today is more than five times what it was 35-40 years ago, rising from $921 in 1949 to $4,734 in 1975. In contrast to income food prices slightly more than doubled during the same period.

One way to relate consumer income and food prices is to compare the number of hours worked today with the number worked in past years to buy a certain quantity of food. In 1949, it took 20 hours' wages to buy a week's supply of food for a family of four but by 1977 only eight hours of work were required to obtain the same amount of food. In other words, even though

food prices were higher in 1977 than in previous years, it took less than half as long as in 1949 to earn enough money to buy the food for the family.

Where does your food dollar go?

Many hundreds of thousands of farmers are producing food for your table.
The money you pay for food is income to farmers and to the business firms. Much of the farmers' returns go toward paying their costs of producing the food.

Though the total amount of money you and other consumers have paid for food has almost quadrupled since 1949, the farmers' income has not increased proportionately. In 1949, farmers received 57% of the money spent for food but in 1975
farmers only received 27.6% of the money. During this time, the business firms' share of the income from food sales has increased more than 10 times.

Unfortunately it's clear that farmers do not gain substantially from the increased prices of the food we buy ... their portion of our food dollar continues to diminish. (These facts were taken from the publication,
FOOD - YOUR BEST BUY
prepared by Statistics Canada and Agriculture Canada.

SUBSCRIBERS !!

The distribution of our newspaper is handled in three ways: on new-stands, through the mail, and by our team of carriers.

The vast majority of our readers prefer receiving the Gazette from our carriers, and it is their job to ensure that you get the Gazette as early as possible every Wednesday, what ever the weather.

Lately, the most difficult part of the carriers job has been collecting from customers. People, now are more on the go, and therefore more difficult to catch at home.

We shouldn't overlook the problems caused by holidays and moving. It is difficult to remember money owed to a carrier.

For greater convenience to all, we are hoping that our readers will take this opportunity to subscribe to the Gazette on a yearly basis.

You won't have to worry about having change on hand, or the carrier bothering you at inopportune moments. The carrier will save time working his or her route, therefore affording them more time with their friends, family and personal activities. The carrier will still receive full creditation for the delivery. If you are moving or taking holidays, just give us a call, and the necessary adjustments will be made (subscription extension, transfer, etc.).

If you move away, you can keep up on local news through the mail by having your paper follow you to your new address.

Simply fill in the coupon below and mail it to the Gazette, or drop by our office at 31 Perron
